

Celebrating Texas Tech University's Phi Beta Kappa Chapter

Congratulations to these eighty-five outstanding students who will be inducted into Phi Beta Kappa on April 9. Founded in 1776, Phi Beta Kappa is the nation's oldest and most prestigious academic honorary. Only ten percent of the nation's universities have Phi Beta Kappa chapters, and only ten percent of the top liberal arts and sciences students from these schools may be elected into lifetime membership. Texas Tech is one of only three public universities in Texas hosting Phi Beta Kappa chapters.

Texas Tech University's Phi Beta Kappa ceremony is free and open to the public on Wednesday, April 9, 2008, at 4 p.m. in the Allen Theatre. Scheduled to speak are Chancellor Kent Hance, TTUHSC President John Baldwin, and the distinguished historian and President of the National Phi Beta Kappa Society, Dr. Allison Blakely.
