College of Media & Communication™

2024 College of Media & Communication Awards Nomination Form

*Nominations due by Friday October 20th
Awards will be presented on Friday, April 19th 2024.*

Outstanding Alumni Award. The Outstanding Alumni Award was created to recognize alumni who have achieved a certain level of professionalism, won other awards in their area of expertise, achieved a high level of position within their careers, and who have sustained their success over a lengthy period of time. Alumni must have graduated from the College of Media & Communication at least 10 years ago. Up to three winners are chosen by a Selection Committee consisting of the Dean's Executive Committee and the President and VP of the National Advisory Board.

Note that if someone does not receive the award for the year in which they are initially nominated, that person will be automatically renominated on next year's ballot (up to 3 years).
