

TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY
Senate Resolution 41.01

(Stating the sentiments of the Student Senate concerning a mandatory attendance policy at the Student Senate retreat.)

WHEREAS, the Senate Retreat provides a valuable learning experience for new as well as returning Senators on how the Senate operates, and

WHEREAS, it is essential for every Senator to attend the retreat in order to form a cohesive group, and

WHEREAS, the retreat is a vital part of establishing goals and planning events for the upcoming session.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, all Senators of the 41st Session will be required to attend the Senate Retreat, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, absence from the Senate Retreat shall be reviewed by the Committee on Rules and Administration as an absence from a Senate meeting, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this resolution be spread upon the Journal and that copies be sent to Dr. Michael Shonrock, Vice President of Student Affairs; Heidi Toth, Editor of The University Daily; and to the students of Texas Tech University.
