The carryover of all kinds of cotton in the United States at the beginning of the 1986-87 marketing year totaled 9.0 million running bales, the largest since 1967, according to the Cotton Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA. The 1986 upland carryover contained a larger proportion of cotton in grades 41 and higher than the previous year. The average staple length was 34.0 thirty-seconds inches, down from 34.1 last year. Staples 36 and longer made up 29 percent of the 1986 carryover, about the same proportion as a year ago. The 1985-86 season supply of 16.9 million bales was up from last year's 15.1 million. Disappearance of upland cotton totaled 7.9 million bales, the smallest on record. Disappearance totaled 11.1 million bales in the 1984-85 season.

Grade. Grades 41 and higher made up 43 percent of the 1986 upland carryover, up from 33 percent the previous year. All white grades comprised 52 percent, the same proportion as a year earlier. The Light Spotted grades accounted for 41 percent against 42 percent last year. Spotted and other colored grades made up 7 percent compared with 5 percent the previous year. Grades 41 and 42 were the predominant grades in this season's carryover, each accounting for about 20 percent.

Staples 31 and shorter accounted for 17 percent of the carryover compared with 16 percent the previous year. Staples 32 through 35 accounted for 54 percent of the August 1 stocks against 55 percent last year. Staples 36 and longer made up 29 percent, the same as a year ago.

Stocks in consuming establishments totaled 764,160 running bales of upland cotton at the beginning of the 1986 season compared with 720,516 bales a year earlier. All white grades made up 85 percent this season compared with 87 percent a year ago. Staples 34 and 35 accounted for 59 percent of mill stocks against 66 percent in 1985.

Stocks in public storage and "elsewhere" totaled 8,219,611 running bales of upland cotton at the beginning of August 1986 compared with 3,290,409 bales a year ago. All white grades accounted for 48 percent this season against 45 percent last year. Light Spotted grades made up 44 percent, down from 49 percent a year ago. Staples 34 and 35 accounted for 37 percent this season compared with 38 percent last year. Staples 36 and longer made up 30 percent, down from 32 percent in 1985.

The 1985-86 season supply totaled 16.9 million running bales compared with 15.1 the previous season. All white grades accounted for 9.2 million bales in the supply this season and Light Spotted grades, 7.2 million bales. Spotted and other colored grades made up 0.5 million bales. Staples 31 and shorter accounted for 1.7 million bales in the supply this season; staples 32 and 33 totaled 2.3 million; staples 34 and 35 accounted for 7.6 million and staples 36 and longer made up 5.3 million bales.
