FROM THE STUDENT SERVICES CENTER

Be sure to attend the CASNR Career Expo on February 23rd. Now is a great time to start planning for summer internships, full and part-time job placements, and summer study abroad programs.

Congratulations to our competitive teams who did so well at the National Western Stock Show and Fort Worth Stock Show!

Congratulations also to Kristen Dunn and Emily Wolter! Good luck at the Institute of Food Technologists Student Association Heart Healthy Product Development Competition.

If your organization/department would like to include event dates or articles in next month’s eNews, please email information to lori.dudley@ttu.edu.

AGGIE OF THE MONTH

Danielle White, a member of Agricultural Communicators of Tomorrow, was selected as January Aggie of the Month.

CASNR Career Expo

The College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources partnered with University Career Services is hosting the annual CASNR Career Expo Wednesday, February 23rd from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the SUB Ballroom. All CASNR students are encouraged to attend to visit with potential employers about career, part-time, and internship opportunities. It’s also a great way to network with people in the industry you hope to have a career in.

It is important to make a positive, lasting impression, so be sure to dress appropriately in business attire. Also, make sure you have enough time to speak with multiple employers and have plenty of résumés on hand. To set up an appointment for a résumés critique, contact Jared Lay at jared.lay@ttu.edu.

CASNR Government Internship Program Now Taking Applications

The CASNR Government Internship Program is taking applications for fall 2011 internships in Washington, D.C. Information sessions about the internship program are scheduled for Wednesday, February 2 at noon, Thursday, February 3 at 2:00 p.m., and Tuesday, February 8 at 5:30 p.m. all in PSS 115. Former interns will be available to answer questions and talk about their internship experiences. Each session is come-and-go as your schedule allows, and interested students only need to attend one information session.

To be eligible for the Government Internship Program, students must be a CASNR major in good standing, have at least 30 hours completed by the start of the Congratulations Danielle! Thank you for your hard work.

Judging Teams Begin on Strong Note at Denver’s National Western Stock Show

Texas Tech University’s wool, meat and livestock judging teams recently competed at the National Western Stock Show in Denver, Colorado, where they boasted a first place and three second place team finishes. The National Western Stock Show began in 1906 and is one of the nation’s oldest and largest shows with a prestigious history of judging contests.

The Wool Judging Team took first place at the contest while the Meat Judging Team and the Livestock Judging Team both took second. The Livestock Judging Team also placed second in the Carload Contest, a contest unique to the National Western Stock Show. The teams will be competing at various other contests this spring. Written by Norman Martin

Campus Life Taking Applications for 50th Masked Rider

The Center for Campus Life is currently taking applications for the new Masked Rider. The person chosen will serve as the 50th Masked Rider at Texas Tech. Many past Masked Riders have been CASNR students, and if you possess equestrian knowledge and skills, don’t hesitate to fill out an application. They are available at the Center for Campus Life, located in the Student Union Building, RM 201. If you have any questions concerning qualifications and deadlines, go online to www.spiritsquads.ttu.edu or call 806.742.5433.
