

Chemistry Placement Exams for CASNR Majors

In order to take CHEM 1307 and 1107 at TTU, students are required to take the Chemistry Placement Exam (CPE). If you are declaring one of the below majors/concentrations, you are required to take CHEM 1307 and 1107 and therefore, must take the CPE, prior to registering for Fall on classes on Day 2 of your RRO Session:

- Animal Science:
 - o Business
 - o Companion Animal Science
 - o Companion Animal Science (Pre-Veterinary)
 - o Equine Assisted Therapy
 - o Equine Production
 - o Equine Science
 - o Meat Science
 - o Production
 - o Production (Pre-Nursing)
 - o Science
 - o Science (Pre-Medicine)
 - o Science (Pre-Veterinary)
- Food Science
 - o Industry
 - o Science
- Plant and Soil Science
 - o Crop Science
 - o Environmental Soil and Water Science
 - o Horticulture and Turfgrass Science
 - o Horticulture at a Distance
 - o Local Food and Wine Production
 - o Viticulture and Enology

Visit the following link for more information from the Chemistry Department and to take the Chemistry Placement Exam:

<http://www.depts.ttu.edu/chemistry/departamental/cpex.php>

College of Agricultural Sciences
& Natural Resources