

Mini Symposium at the Texas Tech Club

Beta Agonists and Animal Welfare

Tuesday February 18, 2014

9:30 am Welcome

John McGlone, Professor Animal and Food Sciences, TTU

9:40 am Beta agonists use in commercial pig and pork production

Dave Anderson, Consultant, Retired from Elanco, currently Affiliate Faculty, Animal Science, Colorado State University

10:10 am Evidence for beta agonists as an animal welfare concern

Guy Loneragan, Professor Animal and Food Science, TTU

10:40 am Do beta-agonists impact animal well-being?

Ty Lawrence, West Texas A&M University

11:10 am Observations in the field related to beta agonists and animal welfare

Temple Grandin, Professor of Animal Science, CSU

11:40 am Panel Discussion

12:00 noon Lunch

1:30 pm Adjourn

Sponsored in part by Elanco Animal Health and Merck Animal Health and the Laboratory of Animal Behavior, Physiology and Welfare at Texas Tech University