Hyatt Regency Austin

208 Barton Springs Road
Austin, Texas 78704

Stay at the finest of downtown Austin hotels at Hyatt Regency Austin. Surrounded by the scenic Hill Country of central Texas, this prime convention hotel is located on the shores of Town Lake, within easy walking distance of Palmer Auditorium, Austin Convention Center, the legendary Sixth Street entertainment district, and the State Capitol Complex. The airport is approximately seven miles away.

The Hyatt's second-level atrium restaurant offers a breakfast buffet and favorites like sizzling fajitas for lunch and dinner. A rippling stream runs through the Branchwater Lounge, which is open nightly.

The Hyatt offers an outdoor pool, whirlpool, and sundeck in a prime setting on Town Lake with views of Austin's skyline. The health club facility, with magnificent lake and downtown views, features exercise cycles, stair climbers, Nautilus fitness equipment, and treadmills. Adjacent to the hotel is a nine-mile hiking and biking trail, with mountain bike rentals available for guests. Riverboat tours, paddleboats, and canoes are also available for enjoying the lake.

With southwestern decor, each guest room is equipped with a radio alarm clock, cable television with pay movies, electronic door lock, hairdryer, air-conditioning, iron/ironing board, telephone with voice mail, data port, and video check-out.

The Hyatt Regency Austin and Texas Tech University have teamed up to offer you two rates to suit your hotel needs in Austin.

$80 state government rate, when available. Must show government id.

$115 Texas Tech rate based on last room availability. This rate may also be used for personal travel.

Also, please note that self parking at the hotel is $9 per night.
