Syllabi Statements about LGBTQIA support. If you have language in your syllabus about classroom civility and/or community, and would like to communicate that you identify as an ally for the LGBTQIA community or provide related resources, the following are two optional statements, provided by Jody Randall from the Office of LGBTQIA at Texas Tech University, that you are welcome to include:

“I identify as an ally to the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, intersex, and asexual (LGBTQIA) community, and I am available to listen and support you in an affirming manner. I can assist in connecting you with resources on campus to address problems you may face pertaining to sexual orientation and/or gender identity that could interfere with your success at Texas Tech. Please note that additional resources are available through the Office of LGBTQIA within the Center for Campus Life, Student Union Building Room 201, www.lgbtqia.ttu.edu, 806.742.5433.”

If you prefer to list campus resources rather than a statement about ally status, you might include the following among other campus resources you wish to share:

“Office of LGBTQIA, Student Union Building Room 201, www.lgbtqia.ttu.edu, 806.742.5433
Within the Center for Campus Life, the Office serves the Texas Tech community through facilitation and leadership of programming and advocacy efforts. This work is aimed at strengthening the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, intersex, and asexual (LGBTQIA) community and sustaining an inclusive campus that welcomes people of all sexual orientations, gender identities, and gender expressions.”
