SACNAS is a society of scientists dedicated to fostering the success of minority scientists — from college students to professionals — in attaining advanced degrees, careers, and positions of leadership.

SACNAS
Advancing Diversity in Science

Visit us online at:
Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/groups/ttusacnas/

Recently added:
Twitter: @ttusacnas
LinkedIn: Search for TTU SACNAS

Questions?
Contact President Stephanie Pleasant
Cell: 806-559-0304
stephanie.pleasant@ttu.edu

TTU SACNAS chapter at the 2013 National Conference.

Making Diversity and Science More Than a Dream

◊ 2010 Role Model Chapter Award: Student Recruitment & Faculty Involvement in 2010
◊ 2011 Role Model Chapter Award: Outstanding Chapter Sustainability
◊ 2012 Role Model Chapter Award: Outstanding Professional Development Series
◊ 2013 Role Model Chapter Award: Outstanding Professional Development
OUR CHAPTER IS OPEN TO:
• ALL science students of any ethnicity from the:
  ♦ Biological Sciences
  ♦ Physical Sciences
  ♦ Agricultural Sciences
  ♦ Mathematics
  ♦ Engineering
  ♦ Social Sciences
• Undergraduate students
• Graduate students
• Faculty and Staff

So come join us!

CHAPTER ACTIVITIES:
• Monthly meetings
• Science in 3D
• Community Service
• Travel to National SACNAS Conference each year in October
• Professional Development opportunities
• Monthly Social Events
• Fundraisers

CHAPTER GOALS:
• Increased appreciation and understanding of underrepresented populations
• Collaboration with groups and organizations to promote student recruitment and increased retention
• Outreach efforts to help our community through activities and service