Competition Guidelines: Language & Culture Day
Friday, November 3rd, 2017
Texas Tech University

Culture Competition | 9:00-11:00 am | CMLL Second Floor Lobby

- Tabletop displays that elucidate an aspect of the target culture.
- Each team has 2 members.
- Each teacher may register a total of 2 teams.
- Tables will be provided; however, you must bring everything else you need in order to set up your display.
- Displays must be accompanied by a 300-500-word description (in English) outlining what it portrays and why it is important for understanding culture.
- Teams must submit the description of their display, as well as its dimensions, to alec.cattell@ttu.edu by 5:00 pm on Friday, October 27th.
- Displays will be assessed for the quality of their presentation and description.

Literature Competition | 9:00-10:00 am | Qualia Room

- Oral presentations of poetry, prose, or drama in the target language.
- Each team has 2-4 members.
- Each teacher may register a total of 3 teams.
- Presentations must be made from memory.
- Presentations may be no shorter than 2 minutes and no longer than 7 minutes.
- Teams must submit a digital copy of the texts they will present to alec.cattell@ttu.edu by 5:00 pm on Friday, October 27th.
- Presentations will be assessed for accuracy, pronunciation, intonation, and volume.

Creative Competition | 10:00-11:00 am | Qualia Room

- Creative presentations of original work that include an element of target language content, e.g. skits, dance routines, musical performances, etc.
- Each team has 2-4 members.
- Each teacher may register a total of 1 team.
- Presentations must be made from memory.
- Presentations may be no shorter than 2 minutes and no longer than 7 minutes.
- Teams must submit a written description of their presentation to alec.cattell@ttu.edu by 5:00 pm on Friday, October 27th.
- Presentations will be assessed for creativity, as well as accuracy, pronunciation, intonation, and volume.