VIETNAM EXHIBIT

The Museum of TTU is hosting the Texas Vietnam Heroes Exhibit in the Helen DeVitt Jones Sculpture Court now until November 14th. Info from MOTTU website: Forty years after their war, the Texans who served in the U.S. Armed Forces during the Vietnam War are being honored by their state with a monument on the Capitol grounds in Austin. Before the Texas Capitol Vietnam Veterans Monument is dedicated next March 29, 2014, an exhibit that includes a tribute to the 3,417 men who died is touring the state. Information about the monument dedication is available at www.buildthemonument.org. The exhibit comes to the Museum of Texas Tech through a special initiative to honor Texas Vietnam veterans and to support a monument to their memory. The exhibition is cosponsored by the Museum of TTU and the University's Vietnam Center and Archive.

TAKING RESERVATIONS NOW!
The New West Campus Residence Hall is the first phase of a planned student housing community on the west campus. Due to it's central location to both Texas Tech University and Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center and proximity to the Law School, this community will be ideally suited for upperclass, graduate, law and Health Sciences center students.

Included in the approximately 230,000 square feet of space will be 455 bed spaces, study areas, multipurpose rooms, staff offices, conference rooms and integrated dining. Surrounding the complex will be courtyards, green spaces, landscape enhancements and public art.

Cable TV (including free HBO), wired and wireless Internet will be available throughout both buildings. All utilities will also be included. The project will include 5,000 square feet of retail and food service facilities.

The new complex will feature 183 units in 1, 2 and 4 apartments. The Upperclass Building will house 308 upperclass students in 4 bedroom apartments. The Graduate Building will house 147 students over the age of 21 in 1 and 2 bedroom apartments. Apartments will be co-ed by unit, similar to Gordon Hall, the Carpenter/Wells Complex, Murray Hall and Talkington Hall.
