

STUDENT OF CONCERN

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How can I submit a student of concern report?

- A report can be submitted online through the Raiders Report system or use this link
 - Make sure your report is detailed!

What should I do if I'm concerned for the wellbeing of a student or friend?

- Submit a thorough and detailed student of concern report

What kind of referrals should be reported as a student of concern?

- Alcohol/Substance Abuse
- Classroom and Other Behavioral Issues
- Displays of Paranoia or Distrust
- Emergency Detentions
- Extreme or Sudden Change in Behaviors
- Identifies any Type of Weapon
- Student Death
- Student and Family Crisis
- Suicidal Ideation
- Suicide Attempts
- Threatening Behavior

Where can I find support resources?

- View the red folder and resources folder located on the Office of the Dean of Students website or
 - View the red folder here
 - View the resource folder here

What happens after I submit a report?

- A staff member from the Office of the Dean of Students will reach out to the student mentioned in the report and see how we can best support them