Keynote Speaker

The Counselor Education program at Texas Tech’s College of Education, TTU Chi Sigma Iota, and West Texas Counseling Association are pleased to announce that Dr. Samuel T. Gladding will be the keynote speaker for the 2019 Counselor Education Growth Conference. The keynote topic is:

“Creativity in Counseling: An Essential and Ethical Aspect of Change”

Creativity is the ability to produce novel and useful changes in a domain or in a person. Counseling as a domain is always changing, as are individuals. This workshop will focus on how counselors can use creativity in an ethical way, especially the creative arts, to help their clients (and themselves) make positive changes in life and live more productively.

Dr. Samuel T. Gladding is a professor in the Department of Counseling at Wake Forest University. Dr. Gladding received his degrees from the University of North Carolina – Greensboro, Yale, and Wake Forest University. He is a fellow of the American Counseling Association (ACA) and the Association for Specialists in Group Work (ASGW). Dr. Gladding is a former president of ACA, ASGW, and the Association for Counselor Education and Supervision (ACES). He is the current president of the International Association of Marriage and Family Counselors (IAMFC). He has also served as president of the American Association of State Counseling Boards (AASCB) and Chi Sigma Iota (CSI).

Dr. Gladding is a prolific writer and an exceptional speaker. He has authored numerous professional publications including 49 books, 89 scholarly articles, 35 book chapters, 10 teaching videos, and 45 poems. Dr. Gladding was a national mental health responder to the 9/11 attack in New York City. He is the recipient of ACA’s Award for a Humanitarian and Caring Person. The Association for Creativity and the American Counseling Association have named awards in his honor. Dr. Gladding has twice been a Fulbright Specialist (China and Turkey).
