Graduate Certificate in Higher Education Administration

Program Overview

The Higher Education Program is committed to excellence in preparing and supporting instructional and administrative leaders for higher education, generating and supporting research, and delivering public service to the field of higher education.

The Graduate Certificate in Higher Education Administration offers opportunities for any individual interested in working in colleges and universities to hone their skills by taking coursework that focuses on the current trends and methodologies in the higher education administration sector. A minimum of 15 semester credit hours is required to obtain the Graduate Certificate.

Although providing an overview of the policies, procedures, and requirements of the Higher Education Program, this Handbook cannot be viewed as having all of the answers. Students must seek answers to questions from other sources including, although not limited to, the Higher Education Program faculty, the College of Education (COE) Office of Graduate Studies and Research (COE Room 105), and the Texas Tech University Graduate School (Holden Hall). While faculty advisors are knowledgeable about the policies, procedures, and requirements, the primary responsibility for reading and following correct policies and procedures remains with the student, not the faculty.

Specific descriptions of courses are in the Texas Tech University Catalog. Information about Texas Tech University can be found on-line at www.ttu.edu. Information about the College of Education and the Higher Education Program can be found at http://www.educ.ttu.edu/

Advisement Procedures

Degree Plan
As soon as possible after admission to a degree program, but no later than during the first semester of work, the student should contact the Master’s Program Coordinator to develop a “Program for the Master’s Degree.” During an individual conference, the program coordinator will assist the student with selecting courses related to the chosen program option. After the student’s degree plan is signed by the advisor and department head and approved by the Graduate School, the student is expected to follow it as the basis in all subsequent enrollments.

Transfer credit. Only six approved semester hours of coursework may be transferred from another accredited university. Transfer courses may not include practicums or internships. No course on the degree plan may be over six years old at the time the degree is conferred.

Applicants with a prior master’s degree. The TTU Graduate Catalog states that permission to work toward a second degree of the same level is granted only upon approval by the Higher Education Program and review by the Graduate Dean. The applicant is subject to all requirements as a new student. While there is no guarantee that any work from the first master’s degree may apply to the second, at least one full year (24 semester hours) must be taken specifically for the new degree program. Therefore, applicants with a prior master’s degree are urged to investigate the Doctoral Program in Higher Education.

Annual Reviews
The Graduate Faculty conducts annual reviews of each enrolled student in the graduate program. These reviews typically take place in February. Students will be reviewed according to the guidelines established in the Satisfactory Progress Policy (See Appendix A).

As a result of this review, the Graduate Faculty will recommend one of the following:
1. Continue in the Graduate Program,
2. Continue in the Graduate Program with Conditions, or
3. Dismissal from Graduate Program

Continuation of Enrollment
Students who have been granted admission are expected to register in the term for which admission is granted. Any student who fails to register during any one-year period prior to graduation, and who does not have an official leave of absence from study granted by the Higher Education Program and the Graduate School, may be required to apply for re-admission to the program according to the procedures and standards in effect at the time of reconsideration.

Although this Handbook provides an overview of the policies, procedures, and requirements of the Higher Education program, the Handbook cannot be viewed as having all of the answers. Instead, students must seek answers to questions from other sources including, but not limited to, the Higher Education program faculty, the COE Office of Graduate Studies and Research (COE Room 105), and the Texas Tech University Graduate School (Holden Hall). While faculty advisors are knowledgeable about the policies, procedures, and requirements, the primary responsibility for reading and following correct policies and procedures remains with the student, not the faculty.

(15 hours)

The certificate in higher education administration will make possible the opportunity for higher education professionals to hone their skills by taking coursework that focuses on the current trends and methodologies in the higher education administration sector. In addition to trends and methodologies, issues of administration, strategic management, and leadership will also be essential components of the Certificate program. This will help fill a need of educating professionals on leadership and management topics relevant to the complex nature of higher education administration. There will be three required courses for the foundation of this certificate, and students may select two additional electives, based on their unique career needs and future career and educational goals.
