Become a teacher.
1. Get assistance with initial certification.
   Take upper-division coursework through Texas Tech University online, with minimal face-to-face meetings in the Dallas area.

Continue your education.
2. Earn a supplemental certification.
   In-service teachers can earn a supplemental certification in Bilingual Education or ESL Education in grades EC-6 online.
Texas Tech University’s College of Education introduces its online Teacher Education Program in partnership with the Dallas County Community College District.

Become a teacher.

Prospective students can earn a Bachelor of Science in Multidisciplinary Studies (MDS) and get certified as elementary teachers with a supplemental certificate in Bilingual Education or English as a Second Language (ESL) Education in grades EC-6.

This degree program will prepare professional educators for teaching in both general elementary and ESL classrooms with an option to add a bilingual certification through additional coursework.

Students will earn an Associate of Arts in Teaching and then transfer to Texas Tech University in order to complete the additional upper division online courses plus student teaching. Students will be required to attend face-to-face meetings in the Dallas area.

Continue your education.

In-service teachers can earn a supplemental certification in Bilingual Education or ESL Education in grades EC-6 online.
