Proceedings
Comparative Literature Symposium
Texas Tech University
Volume XII

SHAKESPEARE'S ART
FROM A
COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE

Edited by Wendell M. Aycock

Texas Tech Press
Lubbock, Texas
1981
Contents

Preface ................................................................. 5

SYMPOSIUM LECTURES

Shakespeare and the Plague ........................................ 13
   J. Leeds Barroll
The Uses of Contemporary History in the Greek and Elizabethan Theatres ...................................... 31
   David Bevington
Exit, Pursued by a Gentleman Born .............................. 51
   Stephen Booth
From Olivier to Kozintsev: Visual Technique in Transforming Hamlet into Film ............................ 67
   Emily S. Brebach
Wooing and Wedding: Shakespeare's Dramatic Distortion of the Customs of His Time ..................... 83
   Ann Jennalie Cook
“Ut Pictura Poesis”: Shared Principles of Organization in Painting and in Shakespearean Drama ................... 101
   Roland Mushat Frye
Shakespeare on Film: The Developing Canon .................... 131
   O. B. Hardison
How Petrarchan is Shakespeare? ................................ 147
   Thomas P. Roche, Jr.
Shakespeare and the Book ........................................ 165
   S. Schoenbaum

LUNCHEON ADDRESS

Shakespeare and His Actors: Some Remarks on King Lear .... 183
   William A. Ringler, Jr.

Notes on the Authors ............................................. 195