COULD YOU WIN THE ENGLISH 2311 instruction design contest?

Do you have an excellent idea for an instructional video, poster, infographic, podcast, brochure, or other type of deliverable designed to teach someone how to do something?

Really? Think about this.

Contest is only open to current 2311 students.

Do you want the fame and notoriety of having your work showcased on the Media Lab's website?

Great!

Are you currently a student in English 2311?

You Could Win!

Sorry!
