

Texas Tech University And Austin Community College District Student Access and Success Articulation Agreement

Parties

This Articulation Agreement (“Agreement”) is between Texas Tech University (“TTU”) and Austin Community College District (“ACC”) (together “institutions”) and outlines their commitment to the Student Access & Success program (“Program”). ACC considered as a whole and this Agreement extends to all campuses within the ACC system or district. TTU and ACC enter into this Agreement in the spirit of cooperation and mutually recognize each other as quality institutions of higher learning.

Background

TTU created the Program to support State of Texas’ and Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board’s 60x30TX Strategic Plan Initiative promoting access, affordability, quality, success, and cost efficiency in the Texas’ institutions of higher education. The mission of the Program is to support a more globally competent workforce by increasing the number of individuals seeking to further their education. The goal of the Program is to increase access to and the number of transfer pathways from which prospective students may choose to pursue a baccalaureate degree while seeking to reduce overall costs of education.

Austin Community College (ACC) is a nationally recognized two-year public college serving Central Texas. ACC is focused on student success and providing affordable, flexible pathways to help students reach their education goals, learn new job skills, or advance their career. The college currently enrolls more than 43,000 credit students and serves an additional 15,000 students each year through noncredit programs. ACC is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award associate degrees and certificates.
