

TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY
Fraternity & Sorority Life[™]
Organization Conduct Flow Chart

Incident is reported to the Fraternity and Sorority Life Office

FSL Office reviews incident report submitted to determine the accuracy, credibility, and sufficiency of information

Interim Action
University may temporarily suspend the organization. FSL Staff member may ask Inter/National or Regional Headquarters to issue a cease and desist

Process Ends
Not enough information to move forward

FSL Staff member reaches out to Chapter President and Advisor for an initial response

FSL Staff member reaches out to Inter/National or Regional Headquarters (except low-level concerns)

Process Ends
If the information does not warrant an allegation of a conduct violation, a policy warning letter may be issued to clarify what policy was in question

Investigation Begins and a staff member from the Office of Student Conduct, Student Resolution Center, or FSL Office is appointed to the case

When the investigation report is completed, the President and their advisors will be given notice of a Pre-Hearing Meeting to review the report and present any new information

Process Ends
If there is not sufficient evidence to proceed to a hearing, a policy warning letter may be issued to clarify what policy was in question

Process Ends
An informal resolution is reached and sanctions are rendered

The case proceeds to a University Discipline Committee hearing

The organization is found responsible for misconduct and for sanctions are assigned by committee

Following the hearing, the committee will render a decision in writing, outlining any sanctions imposed

The organization has five (5) University working days to submit an appeal via the online appeal form referenced in the decision letter

Process Ends
No appeal is made