

Lone Star goes where the wind blows...

LONE STAR GRADUATE DIVERSITY COLLOQUIUM is visiting West Texas this year. On MARCH 28 AND 29, 2008, Texas Tech University invites you to join us on our Lubbock campus .

PURPOSE. The Lone Star Graduate Diversity Colloquium is a collective effort by all colleges and universities in Texas to expand the pool of prospective graduate students that all graduate programs can recruit from. The primary purpose of this event is to encourage more under-represented minorities and women currently enrolled at Texas colleges and universities to stay in Texas to complete their graduate education. Our target group is sophomore and junior undergraduate students and master's students planning to pursue doctoral degrees.

SCHEDULE. Events are planned beginning at 3:30 p.m. on Friday, March 28, through 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 29. In one location, students will have the opportunity to attend sessions related to applying to graduate school, entrance exams, funding graduate school, distance education options, and many more. A recruitment fair is also planned with graduate and health sciences institutions represented from across the state. Scholarship drawings will be held and door prizes will be given away. For more information visit :

HTTP://WWW.GRADSCHOOL.TTU.EDU/LFDC

INTERESTED STUDENTS please contact:

Shannon Samson

Coordinator for Graduate Student Recruiting

Texas Tech University Graduate School

742.2787, ext. 239

Shannon.samson@ttu.edu

Or register online at:

www.gradschool.ttu.edu/lfdc

Registration for Texas Tech Students is $5

