Bachelor of Arts in History

Students seeking an undergraduate degree in history will complete 36 hours of history courses, in accordance with the following:

3 hours selected from either HIST 1300 or HIST 2322
3 hours selected from either HIST 1301 or HIST 2323
6 hours of U.S. history selected from HIST 2300, 2301, and 2310

24 hours in upper-division courses, including:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>3 hours of a 3000- or 4000- level elective in U.S. history</th>
<th>6 hours of 3000- or 4000- level electives in any geographic area</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3 hours of a 3000- or 4000- level elective in European history</td>
<td>6 hours of 4000- level (communication literacy*) electives in any geographic area</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3 hours of 3000- or 4000- level elective in African, Asian, or Latin American history</td>
<td>HIST 4398</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

With prior departmental consent, 3 upper-division hours in related disciplines may be counted toward the major.

At least 12 of the 36 hours required for the history major must be taken in residence, including at least 9 hours from upper-division courses.

Note: All courses numbered above 3000 are upper-division. All HIST courses at the 4000 level will qualify toward the university’s “Communication Literacy” requirement. Additionally, all 4000 level HIST courses require junior standing or consent of the instructor. A student must receive at least a C in any history course if it is to count toward the major or minor.

Any further questions regarding the coursework should be directed via email to the department’s senior academic advisor, Courtney Bray.
