Intro to Research Application Form
Spring 2018

Students interested in signing up for the Intro to Research Workshops must turn in this form to Lori Lightfoot at the Honors College (or by email to honors.urs.forms@ttu.edu by Monday, January 8. These workshops are open to Honors students only. Application forms are also available at the Honors College.

Workshops will cover different aspects of Undergraduate Research and are not discipline specific. They are designed to give students a working knowledge about Undergraduate Research and exposure to faculty who are doing research. There is no grade given but students are strongly advised to commit to the 8 week series. Workshops will be led by Dean San Francisco, Lori Lightfoot and assorted guest speakers.

Workshops will be held Wednesdays at 4:00 in the Honors Residence Hall
February 7 – April 4.

Space is limited and acceptance is granted on a first come basis.

Name: ___________________________________________  R#:________________________________________

Major(s):_________________________________________  TTU Hours Completed Fall 2016:____

TTU Email Address:_________________________________________________________________________

Do you have any specific research interests?

__________________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________

Are there any topics you would like to see covered?

__________________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________

Students who respond after the workshops are full will be placed on a waitlist. Everyone will receive an email regarding his or her attendance status.