Murray Hall is a coed, suite-style residence hall. The Business, Transfer Connection, Honors, and Terry Scholars Learning Communities are located in Murray Hall. Murray Hall is open year-round to provide residents a location where they may live continuously throughout their academic career. Students share a suite with students of the same gender only.

Each suite has private bathrooms, a living area and four bedrooms. Bedrooms are furnished with a twin XL bed, desk, and dresser. The shared living area is furnished with a sofa, entertainment center, coffee table, full-sized refrigerator and a microwave oven. Ceiling fans are included in each bedroom and the living area. Limitless laundry lounges, several lounges, and meeting rooms are available to all residents.

- Close to the Department of Biological Sciences, Rawls College of Business and engineering buildings
- Sam’s Place Murray located in Murray Hall

housing.ttu.edu
Suite-style Residence Halls

Murray Hall

The dimensions listed are approximate. See housing.ttu.edu/facilities/furnishings for more information.