COLLEGE OF HUMAN SCIENCES
GRADUATE COORDINATING COMMITTEE

CHARGE

The Graduate Coordinating Committee promotes, encourages, and supports graduate program activities in the College of Human Sciences.

RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Identify issues regarding graduate programs in the college.
2. Select COHS nominees for various student awards and other awards as appropriate at the graduate level.
3. Make recommendations to the Dean about various graduate education issues.

MEMBERSHIP

1. The committee is composed of all graduate program directors in the college.
2. Committee members serve on the committee as long as they are program director. If the program director is unable to serve, a substitute will be appointed by the department chairperson.
3. The Associate Dean for Faculty and Academics will chair the committee.

OPERATING PROCEDURES

1. The committee will meet periodically as is needed to carry out assigned responsibilities.
2. The Associate Dean for Faculty and Academics as chair of the committee will facilitate its work.

Reviewed June 2018