Student Absences

Reporting an Illness. In case of an illness that will require absence from class for more than one week, the student should notify the Associate Dean for Students (currently Associate Dean Lauderdale). The dean’s office will inform the student’s instructors through the departmental office. In case of class absences because of a brief illness, the student should inform the instructor directly. Other information related to illness can be found in the Student Handbook.

Student Handbook

Reviewed August 2018