Skyviews Spring 2018 Dinner Series
A Fork in the Road - Tasting America

Skyviews’ Spring Dinner Series begins Thursday, February 8 with menus celebrating the great food towns in the U.S., highlighting a distinctive city every week through April 26th.

When people talk about French, German or Italian cuisine, they have a clear sense of the foods that define those cultures. Yet when we talk about American cuisine, it becomes hard to define due to the glorious regional foods that exist across the land.

As travelers to U.S. cities we search out the local restaurants to embrace the great food that is that town’s signature as much as their landmarks and history. American cuisine is a diverse and delicious mixture of foods brought to us from all continents, distinctly American with global roots. Each city proudly exhibits its own version of American cuisine.

Each Thursday this spring highlights one of the great food towns in America, beginning with Miami on February 8th. Skyviews will be offering an exceptional five course dinner with a choice of entrée for $29.00 per person. *The February 15th and March 29th dinners are $35.00 per person.
