We believe in creating a work environment that enables you to exercise your potential for greatness through a global platform of opportunities that will propel you into a meaningful career in financial services. Explore the paths to become an advisor!

Advisor Development Summer Analyst Program

Our 10-week summer internship will provide you with a solid understanding of the financial services industry through a variety of learning opportunities and business specific training in one of the following tracks: Financial Center, Merrill Edge, or Merrill Lynch Wealth Management.

The intern experience includes formal orientation at the start of the program in addition to on-the-job support, educational speaker events and mentorship throughout. Regardless of the track you choose, interns have access to a robust national curriculum designed to build business acumen, provide exposure to our advisor career paths and develop the skills needed to be successful in our business.

Financial Center	Merrill Edge	Merrill Lynch Wealth Management
Gain exposure to client professional roles by working with a team of specialists and leaders within a Bank of America Financial Center. Interns have a unique opportunity to develop and fine-tune their professional skills by actively engaging with teams and enhancing the overall client experience throughout the internship, along with contributing to a defined strategic project which impacts key drivers of business results.	Get a holistic view of Merrill Edge Home Office, including the investment services and offerings that specialists provide to mass affluent clients. Interns gain knowledge in key areas such as client management, service and operations, and business integration through real-time job shadowing and interactions, direct access to site leaders, and projects focused on the client experience, digitization and growth strategies.	Work with a team of experienced Merrill Lynch financial advisors to learn key aspects of wealth management, including investment products and solutions, relationship building, digital capabilities and client interaction. Interns play a critical role in assisting with business development strategies, sales support, market research, portfolio construction, digital adoption and more.
