Turner Consulting LLC

Elvin Turner JD, M.B.A. is President of Turner Consulting LLC. He is a Wellness Advocate, enhancing corporate health wellness programs with a seminar series that relate wellness concepts across topics in health, personal finance and the preparation for retirement; his seminars help audience participants to make the connections between the seemingly separate behaviors that enrich their overall lives. He offers his seminars to employees of corporate employers as well as to associates in non-profit organizations. He partners with professional advisors, presenting their specialized expertise in audience-friendly formats. In addition, he counsels with financial services firms regarding consumer trends that are critical to their businesses. Finally, he is a member of the Executive Committee for the Society of Financial Services Professionals (FSP). He is Chair of the Diversity Committee for FSP.

In all of his roles Mr. Turner works as an industry analyst, writer, teacher and inventor who uses his knowledge of consumer challenges and industry solutions to ground his conclusions. He is expert in analyzing the issues that impact people's lives, making his seminars highly relevant to employees who seek to improve their situations. He brings 35 years of experience working at or for leading financial services organizations, including MassMutual (Connecticut Mutual), Bank of America (Fleet Bank), Travelers Life & Annuity (Citigroup) and Hartford Life. In addition, Mr. Turner worked as an expert analyst at Conning Research & Consulting, one of the most respected insurance research organizations in the industry, focusing on the retirement markets while heading a research team that covered the life insurance and health care sectors.

Mr. Turner holds a degree in Economics and Political Science from Yale University, a J.D. from Harvard Law School and a MBA from the University of Connecticut. He is married to Dr. Katrina Turner, has two adult children and is actively involved in his local church.
