

TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY

Institute for Forensic Science™

Here are the simple steps to apply for the MASTERS in FORENSIC SCIENCE program

- ✓ Apply to Texas Tech University's Graduate School.
Grad school web page <http://www.depts.ttu.edu/gradschool/prospect.php>
- ✓ After being accepted by Dr. Fedler, Associate Dean of the Graduate School into the INDS program
- ✓ Submit the following packet to the Institute for Forensic Science:
  - Letter of Interest (300-500 words) more details are on our webpage
  - Resume
  - Three letters of recommendationSubmit complete packet to:
  - Institute for Forensic Science
  - Dr. Kathy Sperry, Sr. Director
  - 4434 South Loop 289
  - Lubbock, TX 79414
- ✓ Once you have submitted the complete packet and all of your reference letters have been received; you will need to call and arrange for an appointment for an interview.

DEGREE PLAN CHECKLIST for FORENSIC EXAMINER

PROGRAM:

Required Core Course:

Statistics

Research Methods

Law Course

FSCI 5350 – Crime Scene Investigation

FSCI 5351 – Serial Offenders

CAPSTONE:

Thesis, Internship, Report/Project:

Thesis* FSCI 6000 (6 credit hours)

Internship FSCI 6000 (6 Credit hours/118 minimum clock hours)

Report/Project FSCI 6330 (3 credit hours +1 add. 3 hr course)

*If a thesis is chosen fewer course credits will be required.

The Forensic Examiner Program is a 39-hour Master of Science Program

Some Specializations may require leveling courses

Institute for Forensic Science, 4434 S Loop 289, Lubbock, TX

806.743.7901

www.depts.ttu.edu/ifs/