The Sao Paulo Research Foundation (FAPESP) and Texas Tech University have signed a cooperative research agreement to facilitate scientific and technological cooperation between researchers from the Texas Tech University, USA and from the State of Sao Paulo, Brazil. As a first step to this partnership, TTU researchers (tenured and tenure-track faculty and research professors) are now eligible to request seed funding to support exchange of researchers under FAPESP's Sao Paulo Researchers in International Collaboration (SPRINT) program. Up to 5 seed grant proposals will be funded for the exchange of faculty and postdoctoral researchers. FAPESP will provide funding of up to the equivalent of $10,000 per proposal per year and Texas Tech University will provide funding of up to $10,000 per proposal per year, for the duration of the grant (up to 24 months) to cover research-related mobility expenses. The deadline for proposal submission is January 26, 2015. For more information, please click here.

All questions related to this call for joint research projects may be directed to reagan.ribordy@ttu.edu.
