

Application Checklist

1. ESTABLISH YOUR ACCOUNTS

- Create LSAC account at lsac.org.
- Create an account with Credential Assembly Services (CAS) through LSAC.
- Research law schools and use your resources: (meet with your prelaw advisor, attend a Law School forum near you, or review the LSAC Official Guide.)

2. APPLICATION DEADLINES

- Non-binding Early Notification: Nov. 1
- Regular Decision: March 1

*Applications will be accepted after March 1, but scholarship priority will go to students who submitted their application on or before March 1.

3. APPLICATION FEE

You must submit a nonrefundable $60 application fee at the time they apply. If you receive LSAC-approved fee waivers, then your Texas Tech Law application fee will automatically be waived.

4. LSAT

All applicants seeking admission to the J.D. program at Texas Tech Law must take the LSAT. All candidates for 2019 admission must have taken the LSAT in or after June 2014. Although we will accept the January 2019 LSAT, taking an earlier exam is encouraged.

5. TRANSCRIPTS

A transcript from each college or university you have attended must be sent directly to CAS. When you receive additional grades, you should submit an updated transcript to LSAC.

6. LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION

Texas Tech Law requires a minimum of two letters of recommendation, we will accept up to three. We encourage you to request letters from professors and/or employers - individuals in a position to speak about your abilities and professionalism.

7. PERSONAL STATEMENT

Please prepare a two page, double spaced personal statement to assist the Admissions Committee in its decision. While there is not a specific prompt, it is beneficial to at least mention your interest in law. Proofreading is a must.

8. RESUME

A resume is required to complete your application. Please keep the resume to a two pages maximum. This is your opportunity to highlight any extracurricular activities, community service, leadership, work experience, etc.

9. SCHEDULE A VISIT

We encourage you take the time to visit any schools you are interested in or to which you have been admitted. Texas Tech Law invites you to schedule a visit with us at:
