Application Checklist

1. ESTABLISH YOUR ACCOUNTS
   - Create LSAC account at lsac.org.
   - Create an account with Credential Assembly Services (CAS) through LSAC.
   - Research law schools and use your resources: (meet with your prelaw advisor, attend a Law School forum near you, or review the LSAC Official Guide.)

2. APPLICATION DEADLINES
   - Non-binding Early Notification: Nov. 2
   - Regular Decision: March 1
   *Applications will be accepted after March 1, but scholarship priority will go to students who submitted their application on or before March 1.

3. APPLICATION FEE
   The application fee has been waived for the 2020–2021 admissions cycle!

4. LSAT
   All applicants seeking admission to the J.D. program at Texas Tech Law must take the LSAT. All candidates for 2021 admission must have taken the LSAT in or after June 2016. To meet the March 1 deadline, January 2021 LSAT is the last test we will accept.

5. TRANSCRIPTS
   A transcript from each college or university you have attended must be sent directly to CAS. When you receive additional grades, you should submit an updated transcript to LSAC.

6. LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION
   Texas Tech Law requires two letters of recommendation. We encourage you to request letters from professors and/or employers – individuals in a position to speak about your abilities and professionalism.
7. PERSONAL STATEMENT
Please prepare a two page, double spaced personal statement to assist the Admissions Committee in its decision. While there is not a specific prompt, it is beneficial to at least mention your interest in law. Proofreading is a must.

8. RESUME
A resume is required to complete your application. Please keep the resume to a two pages maximum. This is your opportunity to highlight any extracurricular activities, community service, leadership, work experience, etc.

9. SCHEDULE A MEETING
We encourage you to take the time to visit any schools you are interested in or to which you have been admitted. Texas Tech Law invites you to schedule a visit with us at: depts.ttu.edu/law/admissions/schedulevisit.php

10. CONTACT US
If you have any questions about the application or the admissions process at Texas Tech Law, feel free to contact us at admissions.law@ttu.edu or (806) 742-3792.

Good Luck!
We look forward to reviewing your application.
