

ANSC 3204
Advanced Meat Judging

Fall 2010

Objectives: To teach students how to strive for honor, serve others unselfishly, develop critical thinking skills, communication and leadership skills, teamwork concepts and to pursue excellence, through competitive meat judging evaluations in national competitions.

Expected Learning Outcomes: To win four National Contests and a National Championship in Meat Judging for Texas Tech University.

Instructors: Dr. Mark Miller, Professor, Meat Science and Muscle Biology
Animal and Food Sciences
Room 200H Phone: 806-742-2804
Cell: 806-438-4979 Home: 328-5210

Assessment of Learning Outcomes: Contest Performance

Location: Texas Tech University Meat Laboratory

Time: Arranged Hours

Grading: All students will be given a grade according to their contest performance in National Competitions. Persons judging at the excellent level (a score of 1025 or finishing in the top ten individuals) will automatically receive an "A".

University Policies

ADA Statement

Any student who, because of a disability, may require special arrangements in order to meet the course requirements should contact the instructor as soon as possible to make any necessary arrangements. Students should present appropriate verification from Student Disability Services during the instructor's office hours. Please note instructors are not allowed to provide classroom accommodations to a student until appropriate verification from Student Disability Services has been provided. For additional information, you may contact the Student Disability Services office at 335 West Hall or 806-742-2405.

Scholastic Dishonesty

It is the aim of the faculty of Texas Tech University to foster a spirit of complete honesty and high standards of integrity. The attempt of students to present as their own any work not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offence and renders the offenders liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension.

Scholastic dishonesty includes but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, falsifying academic records, misinterpreting facts, and any act designed to give unfair academic advantage to the student or the attempt to commit such an act. Further information can be found in the Student Handbook.

Absence for Observance of a Religious Holiday

A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known to the instructor prior to the absence. A student who is absent from classes for the observance of a religious holiday shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for the day within a reasonable time after the absence. A student may not be penalized for the absence but the instructor may respond appropriately if the student fails to complete the assignment satisfactorily.