

The Lauro Cavazos & Ophelia Powell-Malone Mentoring Program

FACT SHEET

NAME:

The program honors the names and legacies of Dr. Lauro Cavazos, the first graduate to serve as President of Texas Tech University and Ophelia Powell-Malone, the first African American undergraduate to enroll in Texas Tech University.

PURPOSE:

The purpose of the Lauro Cavazos & Ophelia Powell-Malone Mentoring Program is to enhance the quality of the educational experience of students from underrepresented populations through programs, services, advocacy, and campus and community involvement.

MISSION:

Through faculty and staff mentoring and peer group networking, to improve the retention and eventual graduation rates of all students in the Texas Tech University System, with a special focus on those from underrepresented groups, by fostering a campus climate that is conducive to their academic, social, and cultural needs and interests.

PROGRAM HISTORY:

The program was piloted in November of 2002 with 46 students and more than 100 mentors. A unit within the Division of Institutional Diversity, Equity and Community Engagement, during the 2015-2016 academic year, the program grew to more than 1000 total participants. Since the program's inception, more than 3200 students have received services through Mentor Tech. Mentor Tech's average retention rate (eighty-six percent), is consistently higher than the University's average. Nearly 1000 participating students have earned degrees from Texas Tech University and the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center over the last ten years.
