Scavenger Hunt
for kids in grades k - 3

the NATIONAL RANCHING HERITAGE CENTER
Jumping Jackrabbits!

As you walk through the park you will notice several Jackrabbits! The NRHC is their home and they do not like to be chased.

How many Jackrabbits do you see in the park?
Use the space below to keep count!

Can You Find Joe-Jack??

As you explore the National Ranching Heritage Center, keep an eye out for Joe-Jack Rabbit! Joe-Jack is a plush jackrabbit hidden in one of our historic structures. If you discover his hiding spot, write it down in the blank below! Remember to look for Joe-Jack everytime you visit because he doesn’t stay in one spot for long!

Where is Joe-Jack?

__________________________________________

__________________________________________
Artifact Scavenger Hunt

The historic structures at the NRHC were moved from their original locations so that visitors, like you, could learn about the history of ranching! Look inside each of the structures and you will see artifacts that were used by the people who once lived in, and used, each of these buildings.

Draw a line from the artifact on the right to the structure you see it in on the left!

Los Corralitos, c. 1780

Waggoner Ranch Commissary c. 1870

Bairfield Schoolhouse, c. 1890

Harrell House, c. 1900

Masterson JY Bunkhouse c. 1879

Lunch Pails

Sewing Machine

Baby Cradle

Cash Register

Saddle
Before barbed wire fences were built around ranches, the cattle roamed freely. To keep track of them, the ranchers branded the cattle. Every ranch put different symbols on their cattle so they could easily see who owned what. We, at the NRHC, even have our own brand:

[Image of the NRHC brand]

Look at the different examples of brands in the 6666 Barn and create your own brand in the box below!

What does your brand mean?

__________________________________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________________________