Student Name: Alex Pearson

Degree Sought: Masters in Natural Resource Management

Specialty: Wildlife Ruminant Nutrition

Hometown, State/Country: Cypress, Texas

Research Interests or Projects:

Alex graduated from Texas Tech University in 2023 with a bachelor's in Animal Science Production and a minor in Natural Resource Management. After working with the Wildlife Society at Texas Tech and becoming an Undergraduate Research technician, she found a passion for working with nutrition and different ruminant species. Her studies will encompass whitetail deer diets and how different available supplements may alter or enhance their natural diet. When she's not working, she enjoys hiking, leather working, and painting.
