Wind Science and Engineering Librarians Hard at Work: Jon Hufford and Marina Oliver with the TTU Library have recently secured a valuable archive for our students and faculty to use. Wind Energy is a journal published by John Wiley & Sons and focuses on articles about wind power and industry topics. The archive dates back to 1998 and is now available for use at http://library.ttu.edu/ejournals.php by typing in “wind energy”.

WISE Wednesday Lecture: This last WISE Wednesday lecture was well attended due to Dr. Stephen Ekwaro-Osire’s lecture about wind turbine gearbox failure and future research. Many thanks to Dr. Ekwaro-Osire for his presentation and all who attended.

McDonald-Mehta Lecture Series with Dr. Greg Kopp: Many thanks to all of you who participated in coming to the M-M Lecture on February 2nd. Dr. Kopp was very impressed with our faculty and students in the program and mentioned that wind tunnel related research students from WISE would be welcome to participate in internship at the University of Western Ontario. To all the professors, students, and staff who worked with Dr. Kopp’s visit, The WISE Center sincerely thanks you for representing Texas Tech University so well! Fox 34 News’ Jessica Miller interviewed Dr. Kopp and that video can be seen at the website below:
