7. Trademark Usage Policies

Reproduction of all registered marks that identify Texas Tech may not be used without the prior expressed written approval of the university.

a. Registration will be maintained primarily in the United States, but it may also extend internationally if significant markets arise.

b. Licenses will not be granted for the use of distinct marks on products that are not compatible with the image of the university as a major institution for education, research, and public service.

c. The university and the Collegiate Licensing Company will enforce restrictions on the use of registered marks by unlicensed vendors. Unlicensed vendors who sell goods bearing university registered marks will be required to obtain a license and pay royalties or withdraw the goods from sale.

d. Registered student organizations (RSO) may use the university’s registered marks when used in connection with a group activity, provided items are acquired from a licensed vendor. A sample or drawing needs to be provided showing how the university’s registered marks are to be used before production of the merchandise can proceed. This sample will be submitted by the licensed vendor selected by the Texas Tech registered student organization.

e. Departments of Texas Tech may use the university’s registered marks on merchandise, provided items are acquired from a licensed vendor. A sample or drawing needs to be provided showing how the university’s registered marks are to be used before production of the merchandise can proceed. This sample will be submitted by the licensed vendor selected by the Texas Tech department.

f. Athletic conferences in which the university holds membership will be allowed to use all university registered marks associated with the athletic teams. There will be no payment of royalties when university registered marks are used in the media or on non-commercial promotional items that include registered marks of the conference and/or other member institutions.
8. Policies and Guidelines for Texas Tech (in-house) Use a. In-house use: Registered student organizations, student sports teams, resident hall organizations, and university departments may use any university registered marks for “in-house” purposes (e.g., posters, signs, banners, brochures) that deal with on-campus activities. Such use must reflect positively on the university and be reproduced accurately by a licensed vendor of Texas Tech and must not conflict or cause confusion with Texas Tech Intercollegiate Athletic Teams. The student organization’s name must be included in the design. Approval from the Director of Digital Media, Trademark Licensing, & Special Projects is required.

b. Recognized student organizations and campus departments may include a sponsor name/logo along with university trademarks on products and certain forms of advertising. However, the student organization/department’s name must be included in the design to communicate that the relationship is a partnership with a particular group and not an endorsement by the university as a whole. Approval will not be granted for sponsors who conflict with university exclusive agreements. Based on the scope of the program, a rights fee may be assessed to the sponsor to associate its name with Texas Tech University. These sponsors may not be designated as “Official” or “Exclusive.” University departments will need to secure approval of any joint advertisement from the Director of Digital Media, Trademark Licensing, & Special Projects. Policies and guidelines for non-Texas Tech use still apply.

c. Sales restricted to campus organizations and departments: Registered student organizations and university departments may sell or give away products (such as T-shirts), which display university registered marks combined with the names and logos of that organization, department, or activity. These items must relate directly to an on-campus activity sponsored by that organization/department. Items need to be unique and not compete with products and/or artwork available in the retail market and be reproduced accurately by a licensed vendor of Texas Tech. Approval from the Director of Digital Media, Trademark Licensing, & Special Projects is required. Royalties will apply.

9. Policies and Guidelines for Non-Texas Tech Use (includes donor, individual, and commercial use) a. Private and/or corporate businesses may not use Texas Tech’s registered trademarks on company vehicles. Placing Texas Tech’s registered trademarks near company information on company vehicles is prohibited, as there will be a likelihood of confusion that the company is a representative of, or sponsored by, Texas Tech (e.g., paint, decals).

b. Private and/or corporate businesses may not use Texas Tech’s registered trademarks in their company name.

c. Private and/or corporate businesses may not use Texas Tech’s registered trademarks in the sale of commercial products or advertising. University indicia cannot be incorporated into off-campus business telephone numbers, Internet addresses, or Internet domain names.

d. The university does not permit the use of its identifying graphics by any other institution or business.
e. Private and/or corporate businesses may not establish a permanent statue, mural, or icon that includes the university trademarks or likeness without written permission from the Director of Digital Media, Trademark Licensing, & Special Projects.

f. Private and/or corporate businesses or organizations may not use the trademarks of the university in any type of advertisements, on websites, or on banners, etc., without written permission from the Director of Digital Media, Trademark Licensing, & Special Projects.

g. Private and/or corporate businesses may not produce merchandise for resale or giveaway that utilizes the university's trademarks and its name and/or logo without written permission from the Director of Digital Media, Trademark Licensing, & Special Projects.

h. Private and/or corporate businesses may not use university trademarks to promote their products or services in print advertising, radio, or television without a promotional contract in place or written permission from the Director of Digital Media, Trademark Licensing, & Special Projects.

i. Individuals or private and/or corporate businesses may not use university trademarks on a website without written permission from the Director of Digital Media, Trademark Licensing, & Special Projects. If approved, the university will provide a disclaimer that must be used on the site.

j. Individuals or organizations may not utilize the university's trademarks in conjunction with a candidate for political office or policy/legislative issue without written permission from the Director of Digital Media, Trademark Licensing, & Special Projects.

k. Texas Tech registered trademarks cannot be used in any design that infringes on another entity (e.g., Harley Davidson, Jim Beam).

l. The university recognizes that many groups support the institution in academics and athletics. However, any group wanting to use university trademarks on product, regardless of use, must purchase the product from a current university licensee. By supporting the university's licensing initiatives, organizations can assist the university by ensuring that products bearing a Texas Tech mark are of the highest quality and meet all insurance and contractual requirements. The licensee is responsible for getting the design approved by the Director of Digital Media, Trademark Licensing, & Special Projects and remitting the university's royalty on the product to CLC.

m. If a donor wishes to utilize one of Texas Tech University's trademarks in some manner, written permission must be obtained from the Director of Digital Media, Trademark Licensing, & Special Projects. The verbiage “supporting Texas Tech University,” “supporting XXX at Texas Tech University,” or “supporting Texas Tech Athletics” must be included. All materials using university marks must be submitted for approval before production and must be purchased from a current university licensee.

n. Booster clubs may use sponsor names on merchandise only with written approval from the Director of Digital Media, Trademark Licensing, & Special Projects. The organization's name must be included in the design to communicate that the relationship is a partnership with the organization and not with the university. Based on the scope of the program, a rights fee, in addition to royalties, may be assessed.
10. Unauthorized use of University Marks

Any use of university marks that does not comply with the university’s licensing and approval requirements will be considered unauthorized and may violate federal and/or state laws.

The university reserves the right to take appropriate action when confronted with unauthorized uses of its marks. Depending on the facts, such action may include confiscation of goods and issuance of a cease and desist letter. It can also result in jail time and numerous fines if convicted.

11. Definition of Commercial Use

Items for resale: The following purposes constitute commercial use when selling products (e.g., T-shirts, sweatshirts, cups, hats, etc.) with any university registered marks:

a. Sales to campus and private retailers (including registered student organizations and departments of Texas Tech);

b. Sales to individual customers;

c. Sales to Texas Tech sporting events through concessions;

d. Sales on campus by registered student organizations;

e. Sales for fundraising projects by registered student organizations; and

f. Sales to registered student organizations for the purpose of promoting their organization.

Promotional use: Items bearing university registered marks that are either sold or given away are promotional and considered commercial.

12. Approval by the Director of Digital Media, Trademark Licensing, & Special Projects

The Director of Digital Media, Trademark Licensing, & Special Projects must grant approval to all outside vendors wanting to use any university registered marks, even if the vendor is producing items for a Texas Tech affiliated group. If a registered student organization or department is involved in any of the activities deemed as commercial, then the vendor from which merchandise is purchased must be licensed by the Collegiate Licensing Company. If a project falls into an exempt category, the Director of Digital Media, Trademark Licensing, & Special Projects must issue a waiver to the vendor producing the merchandise.

The Director of Digital Media, Trademark Licensing, & Special Projects maintains a list of all Texas Tech licensed vendors. These vendors have been carefully chosen and are familiar with Texas Tech University’s licensing policies and procedures. For assistance in choosing a licensed vendor, please contact the Director of Digital Media, Trademark Licensing, & Special Projects.
