Missions

The mission statements herein are the only mission statements authorized to be used without prior approval of the board.

Texas Tech University System. The mission of the Texas Tech University System is to provide leadership and support services for Texas Tech University, the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center, and Angelo State University in the attainment of each component's individual mission.

Texas Tech University. As a public research university, Texas Tech advances knowledge through innovative and creative teaching, research, and scholarship. The university is dedicated to student success by preparing learners to be ethical leaders for a diverse and globally competitive workforce. The university is committed to enhancing the cultural and economic development of the state, nation, and world.

Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center. The mission of Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center is to improve the health of people by providing educational opportunities for students and health care professionals, advancing knowledge through scholarship and research, and providing patient care and service.

Angelo State University. Angelo State University, a member of the Texas Tech University System, delivers undergraduate and graduate programs in the liberal arts, sciences, and professional disciplines. In a learning-centered environment distinguished by its integration of teaching, research, creative endeavor, service, and co-curricular experiences, ASU prepares students to be responsible citizens and to have productive careers.

Index of "Missions" amendments adopted since December 12, 2008:

Section	Date	Description of Amendment
Texas Tech University	5-14-10	TTU proposed – and the Board approved – a revised Mission statement for Texas Tech University.

Angelo State University	3-6-09	When the December 2008 revised edition of the Regents' Rules was adopted, a section header for ASU was added to the Missions page, but no mission statement was included. At that time, ASU was in the process of revising its mission statement ... so until the new ASU mission statement was ready, the Board decided to include the following statement for ASU: "(This section reserved for a new mission statement to be submitted by Angelo State University for approval by the Board of Regents.)" In March 2009, the Board approved a new mission statement for ASU, with that new mission statement being inserted into the Missions page of the Regents' Rules .
