

study

POLITICAL SCIENCE

TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY.

American Politics
Comparative Politics
International Relations
Public Administration

The Department of Political Science at Texas Tech University (TTU) would like to invite students with significant research potential and interests in Political Science or Public Administration to apply to our Masters and PhD programs.

Students accepted to the Texas Tech graduate programs in Political Science can expect:

- A low faculty-to-student ratio
- A highly collegial environment significant support and mentoring to succeed
- A diverse student body
- A group of faculty members who cover a wide range of areas within the major fields of Political Science and Public Administration
- For exceptional candidates a 9-month stipend and partial tuition waiver.

Requisites to be considered for the program include:

- Students' academic transcripts – including any graduate work
- Graduate Record Examination scores (GRE),
- Letters of recommendation – 3 for Political Science – 2 for Public Administration
- Statement of purpose
- International students are required to provide their TOEFL scores.
- Curriculum Vitae

Applications will be considered at any time throughout the year. However, to be fully considered for all available financial assistance, completed applications should be submitted by January 15 of the year the student expects to begin graduate study.

For more information visit:

www.depts.ttu.edu/PoliticalScience/ProspectiveStudents/Graduate.php