JD/MPA Course Substitution Form

Student Name: ________________________________________________

Student R#: _____________________        Date: _________________

Student’s Concentration: ________________________________________

Courses Requested for Substitution*

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

Notes from the Concentration Advisor:

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

Advisor Signature: __________________________________   Date: ______________

*This form must have the syllabus for each substitution course attached to it and must be signed by the concentration advisor before being turned in to the Graduate Advisor: Sara Dennis | Holden Hall 116 | sara.dennis@ttu.edu