

A stylized graphic in red, white, and black. It features a graduation cap at the top, a building with a dome on the left, the Texas Tech University seal in the center, and a silhouette of a person on a horse on the right. A red banner at the top contains the year '2021'. The background is decorated with red plus signs and dots. The entire graphic is set against a white background with a black outline, and sits on a black base with a white border.
