Graduate Student Writing Center Opens in Spring 2015

We are pleased to announce the opening of the Graduate Student Writing Center (43 Administration Building), located in the Graduate Student Center. This resource is open to all graduate students, but we are currently focusing our efforts on those who are finishing their theses or dissertations and writing fellowship applications. This semester, we are offering limited tutoring for graduate students. A scheduling system will be put in place shortly, but for the next few weeks, students can e-mail the Associate Writing Center Director, Dr. Kristin Messuri (kristin.messuri@ttu.edu), to schedule appointments. Independent Writing Hours will be held in the writing center on Mondays from 3:00 PM-5:00 PM. During this time, graduate students may use the writing center as a workspace and ask the Associate Director questions as they arise. The Graduate Student Writing Center will also host a series of workshops. The first workshop, “Battling Writer’s Block,” will be held on Friday, March 6 from 1:00 PM-3:00 PM. Students may email Dr. Messuri to register. Participation will be capped at 20 students. Though tutoring will be handled by appointments only, Dr. Messuri will be in the Graduate Student Writing Center on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 9:00 AM-5:00 PM.
