Dear Faculty Colleagues:

In an effort to keep you informed of international activities at Texas Tech University, we have now developed two new web-based applications. An interactive “International Partnerships and Agreements” map (http://www.depts.ttu.edu/international/ieem/partnerships/partnerships.php) has been created to provide you quick access to information regarding more than 150 partnerships and agreements that we currently have with universities and institutions in almost 50 countries. Similarly, an interactive map has been developed and can be accessed at http://www.depts.ttu.edu/international/ieem/admission/studentsfrom.php for information regarding our international student body hailing from more than 107 countries. We hope that you will find these resources beneficial. Thank you.
