• 543 University Advising students had declared a major by the end of term.
• The Teaching, Learning, and Professional Development Center (TLPDC) offered seven professional development opportunities for over eighty academic advisors.
• University Studies saw a 17% increase in enrollment over Spring 2014. This is a 510% increase since the program began in Spring 2012.
• 482 pre-transfer students received one-to-one advising from the staff in Community College and Transfer Relations (CCTR); a 31.7% increase over Spring 2014.
• CCTR has a fully executed an Engineering Articulation Agreement between TTU and Lubbock Christian University.
• Many of the Undergraduate Education Advising Offices were nominated for the President’s Excellence in Academic Advising Award.

• Pre-Professional Health Careers hosted the 2015 West Texas Health Profession School Fair with 350 students in attendance.
• University Advising and RaiderReady have proposed a section of IST100 linked with ENGL1301 that would be exclusively for undecided students.
• University Advising and Support Operations for Academic Retention have partnered this semester to develop better support for undecided students on academic recovery. Many students have already received Dean’s approval to return from suspension for the Fall 2015 term.
• RaiderReady has partnered with the RISE Office to develop curriculum on student behavior and wellness that will be incorporated into curriculum in the Fall 2015 term.
• The Office of Student Success and Retention released a supplement to the Annual Report to the Provost with information regarding the university’s efforts and future plans for retention success.

• The Center for Active Learning and Undergraduate Engagement (CALUE) inaugurated the CALUE Service Breaks program engaging 50 students, faculty and staff.
• Academic Testing Services extended its partnership with TTUHSC by proctoring for the Anatomy and Physiology exam used in the admissions process for nursing students.
• CALUE hosted the 7th Annual Undergraduate Research Conference with 200 undergraduates presenting during the event.
• TLPDC partnered with the Teaching Academy and Faculty Sentate to sponsor Coffee with the Chancellor at which Chancellor Duncan spoke with faculty about the value of teaching.
• RaiderReady hosted a training event with Amy Baldwin, author of the text used in the IST1100 course. During this event, instructors were able to dialogue about ways to engage freshmen and learn how to incorporate the idea of resiliency into the course curriculum.

• University Advising presented several national, state, and regional conferences and have been recognized by NACADA for their best practices.
• A student org, Minority Association of Pre-Medical students, sponsored by PPHC was awarded TTU’s best student organization and has been recognized as Chapter of the Year for the region.
• Allison Boye of the TLPDC was elected to the Board of Directors for the Professional and Organizational Development Network in Higher Education.