Oregon State University Extension Position now open

Dear Colleagues,

We invite applications for an Assistant Professor of Practice, Horticulture Extension, at Oregon State University. Responsibilities are focused on commercial cropping systems (particularly hazelnuts, tree fruits and berries) in the Southern Willamette Valley, and community horticulture and the Master Gardener Program in Lane County, Oregon. The position is a full time, 12-month, fixed-term position. Salary is commensurate with education and experience. Required qualifications include a Master’s degree in horticulture, entomology, agriculture, or a related field, the ability to lead and supervise volunteers, demonstrated teaching, applied research, and organizational skills, and a demonstrable commitment to promoting and enhancing diversity. Preferred qualifications include one or more years’ experience with Extension, demonstrated skills in plant problem diagnosis, and demonstrated experience in horticultural crop production. To review posting and apply, go to http://oregonstate.edu/jobs. Apply to posting # P02845UF. The direct link to the position posting is https://jobs.oregonstate.edu/postings/73918. Closing Date: 04/09/2019. OSU is an AA/EOE/Vets/Disabled.

Please share this widely, thanks very much!
