Summer Internships Available
Todd Ag Consulting, LLC is a crop consulting business located in Plainview, Texas. Todd Ag Consulting provides IPM services, fertility recommendations, and irrigation scheduling to growers in 8 counties surrounding the Plainview area. We are currently hiring ag techs for this summer crop scouting season. Below is a description of the positions available. Please contact James Todd @ 806-774-3941 or Lena Garrison @ 719-250-0556 for more information.

Job Type: Internship

Education: High school or equivalent + 1 year of college (required)

Experience: work, 1 year (Required)

License: Driver’s License (Required)

Language: English (Required)

Job description and other requirements:
- Scouts fields for insects, weeds, disease, fertility, soil moisture content, and crop growth.
- Take notes on key pests and crop stages and report to agronomist.
- Maintain pickups and 4 wheelers
- Must be at least a Freshman in college.
- Must have an agriculture or science based major.
- Must be responsible, self-motivated, and be able to set own pace for getting job done in efficient and accurate manner.