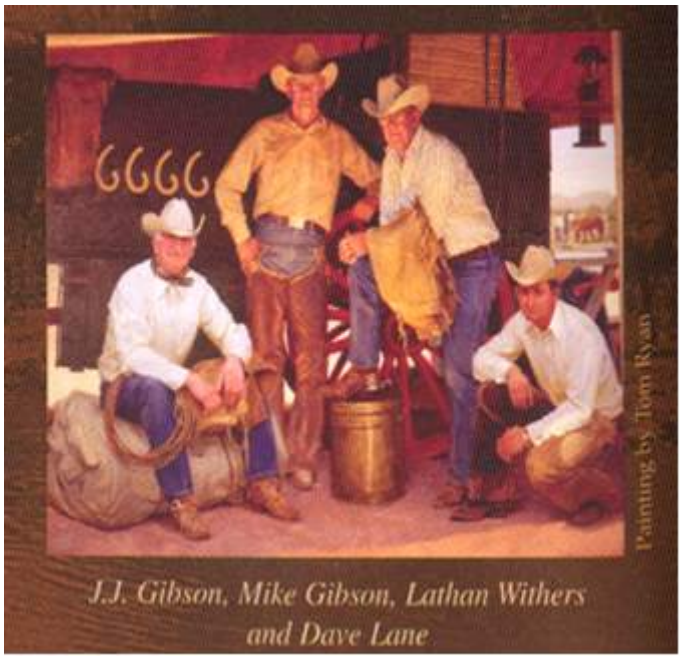
The Four Sixes Ranch Today



©Tom Ryan

The Four Sixes Ranch is a place of continuity and tradition. Through the years, there have been just five managers at the ranch headquarters in Guthrie, Texas.

J.W. "Bud" Arnett - 1900-1930
Horace Bryant - 1930-1932
George Humphreys - 1932-1970
J.J. Gibson Jr. - 1970-1991
Mike Gibson - 1991-present

Mike Gibson succeeded his father in 1991 and serves as the current Four Sixes manager. A graduate of Texas Tech University, he and his family reside in the ranch headquarters home in Guthrie, where he takes great pride in helping to maintain the fine reputation of this legendary ranch.

Today, the Four Sixes Ranches in Texas and Montana represent both the present and the past. This is largely due to the foresight of Burk Burnett and the management and support of his descendants who value their heritage and the prominent ranch's place in the history of Texas and the American West.

Four Sixes Ranch

established 1870

The Legacy Continues Today

High-quality cattle
Speed-bred race horses
Dedication to excellence
Philanthropic endeavors
Ranching heritage

To learn more about the Four Sixes Ranch, visit their Web site at www.6666ranch.com