I help students see value in the experiences they have had while in school, in part-time work and internships. Through one-on-one appointments, networking events, and workshops I help develop students into future talent for our employer partners.

THE RAWLS CAREER MANAGEMENT CENTER HAS IDENTIFIED SIX KEY COMPETENCIES FOR CAREER READINESS...

Are you RAWLS READY?

CAREER MANAGEMENT

Identify and articulate one's skills, strengths, knowledge, experiences, and career goals relevant to the position desired, while being able to identify areas of professional growth.

What Does It Look Like?

You are able to navigate and explore job options that relate to your skills, strengths, personality and goals. You are able to take the steps necessary to pursue opportunities, and understand how to self-promote in the workplace.

Competency in Action

Visit the Career Management Center early and often to increase the chances of landing a paid internship with a goal of transitioning to full-time employment. Utilize the resources within the Career Management Center to aid in self and career exploration.

CRITICAL THINKING/PROBLEM SOLVING

Exercise sound reasoning to analyze issues, make decisions and overcome problems. The individual is able to obtain, interpret, and use knowledge, facts, and data in this process, and may demonstrate originality and innovation.

What Does It Look Like?

Good critical thinkers can draw reasonable conclusions from a set of information and discriminate between useful and less useful details to solve a problem or make a decision. With this skill, you can be trusted to make decisions on your own and do not need constant handholding.

Competency in Action

You are given a project that is unfamiliar to you. Rather than relying on the supervisor for step-by-step instruction, you take action by reviewing the information that is readily available and seek out other avenues to gain insight into the details of the project. This might be through reaching out to fellow team members or by doing additional research.

LEADERSHIP

Leverage the strengths of others to achieve common goals, and use interpersonal skills to coach and develop others.

What Does It Look Like?

You are able to assess and manage your emotions and those of others; use empathetic skills to guide and motivate; organize, prioritize and delegate tasks.

Competency in Action

You can practice good leadership skills in any role, at any level. For example, showing up on time to meetings and turning in work on schedule shows dependability. Offering support and coaching to less experienced colleagues is also an example of leadership.

Employers are looking for new graduates to be #Rawls Ready – meaning they know how to use their talents, strengths and interests.

ORAL/WRITTEN COMMUNICATION

Articulate thoughts clearly and effectively in written and oral forms to persons inside and outside of the organization.

What Does It Look Like?

You have public speaking skills; are able to express ideas to others; and can write/edit memos, emails, professional documents, and complex technical reports clearly and effectively.

Competency in Action

Starting with the resume and cover letter, all written correspondence should be created with the upmost professionalism and be free from spelling and grammatical errors. A great way to demonstrate oral communication skills is in the job interview. The ability to speak about your best qualities and skills is a way to show the employer the value you can bring to the job.

TEAMWORK/COLLABORATION

Build collaborative relationships with colleagues and customers representing diverse cultures, races, ages, genders and religions.

What Does It Look Like?

You are able to work within a team structure and can negotiate and manage conflict while understanding others' viewpoints.

Competency in Action

Many work settings involve working in multiple workgroups to achieve a common goal. You must be able to work within a team structure and negotiate and manage conflict in order to achieve a common goal. You should find ways to become actively involved in student organizations, planning events and/or working part-time.

PROFESSIONALISM/WORK ETHIC

Demonstrate personal accountability and effective work habits such as punctuality, productively working with others, time management and ethical behavior.

What Does It Look Like?

Acting responsibly and fairly in all personal and work activities. Employers want people who are punctual, can manage their time, learn from one's mistakes and hold themselves to a high level of integrity and ethics.

Competency in Action

Always show up for work on time and dressed appropriately for the position. Contribute in a positive manner to the job or project. Demonstrate integrity and ethical behavior even if questioned or corrected by supervisors. Learn from your mistakes and change accordingly.

Handshake

Meet your potential. Discover new career paths. Find amazing jobs and internships. Connect with great companies and non-profits. All in Handshake.

HELPFUL TIPS WHEN USING HANDSHAKE

- Be sure to complete your Profile and Career Interests. Handshake uses the information you provide to find opportunities you might be interested in. The more you log-in and interact in your Handshake account, the better your experience will be. Complete your profile and let Handshake do the rest!
- Why type everything again? Building your Profile is easy! Handshake will snag your education, work and volunteer experiences, and organizations and extracurriculars from your resume so you don't have to waste time typing it all in.
- We all love to put a face with a name so don't forget to add a Profile Picture to your Handshake account. Be sure you are professional in your choice and stay away from those #selfies. The Career Management Center offers professional headshot photos a few times each semester, but they are not required for your Handshake account. Just remember, this is an employer's first impression of you—make it count!
- Is there a company you have always dreamed of working for? Check our Handshake employer database to see if they are listed as one of our employers. If so, click the "Favorite Employer" button in their profile. This will tell Handshake you are interested in this company and the system will notify you when this company is on campus, posts a new position at Rawls, etc.
- Did you miss out on applying for your dream job or completely forget about the Rawls Career Fair? Don't forget to set your Notification Preferences. You have the option to receive notifications in your Handshake account and/or by email. You can also opt-out of being notified about certain items.
- Don't forget to add an introduction under "My Journey" in your Profile. This is a great space to introduce yourself to an employer and highlight your goals. Your introduction should be short and concise, listing only relevant information. Avoid listing personal statistics, such as family and hobbies.

RAWLS CAREER FAIR

Typically, the Rawls College of Business Career Management Center (CMC) holds an in-person career fair one day each semester. On average, 130+ employers and 1,200+ Rawls students attend each semester. To ensure the safety of our students and employers, due to COVID-19 and the inability to follow safe social distancing protocols, the Rawls College of Business Career Fair will be hosted virtually in Handshake.

What is a virtual career fair? Virtual career fairs on Handshake give you the opportunity to meet recruiters and other employees through video sessions, from anywhere in the world. You'll learn more about employers hiring at Rawls, and connect with companies that want to hire you. Attending video sessions, instead of an in-person fair, means there is no waiting in line to talk to recruiters. When you register for a virtual career fair on Handshake, you sign up for specific session times—securing your spot to meet with the employers you're interested in.

THERE ARE TWO TYPES OF VIRTUAL FAIR SESSIONS IN HANDSHAKE:

- GROUP SESSIONS: During these sessions you'll join other students to meet recruiters and other employees of the organization. You'll learn about job and internship opportunities, company culture, and more. You'll also have an opportunity to ask your own questions.
- ONE-ON-ONE SESSIONS: This is an opportunity to chat directly with a recruiter or employee ambassador about jobs and internships.

Recruiters will likely review your profile before a session, so be sure your resume is approved in Handshake prior to the fair, and update your Handshake profile with your location preferences, as well as skills, organizations, and work experience!

To find upcoming virtual career fairs in Handshake, navigate to the Events page, then select "Career Fair". Please notice there are multiple career fair dates listed. The CMC is splitting up the typical one large career fair into several smaller fairs. We are limiting the number of employers in each fair to give students enough time to visit with all the employers they are interested in. We HIGHLY encourage you to attend all sessions as there will be a different set of employers at each event. Keep watching the employer lists in each session to see which employers are signed up to attend.

NAVIGATING AN IN-PERSON CAREER FAIR

BEFORE

- Download the Career Fair Plus App in iTunes or Google Play, and determine which employers to target. (Career Fair event details and employer details are also located in Handshake.)
- Check out the Networking and Elevator Pitch sections of the Handbook (Page 28) or attend a relevant workshop.
- Go to a resume workshop (times located in Handshake) and get your resume in shape for the Fair.
- Professional attire is required for the event. Stop by the CMC if you need help with dressing for success.
- Group your employers into 3 groups (ex. Favorite, Somewhat Interested, Least Interested). When attending the Fair you will start networking with your "Least Interested" list of employers and work out all nerves, before heading to your "Somewhat" and then "Favorites" list.

DURING

- Dress business professional and bring a padfolio with plenty of resumes.
- Look at the Career Fair Plus App. Inside the app is a map of where all of the employers are located. You will also have a color coded sticker for your major. Make sure to look at the employers' stickers to know which majors they are recruiting.
- Use your elevator pitch to initiate conversation about your experience/skills and how you are a good fit for the employer and the desired position.
- Ask engaging questions about the internships and full-time opportunities the employer has available.
- Exchange business cards or contact information.

AFTER

- Keep the employer's contact information so you can refer back to who you spoke with at the Fair.
- Write down the name of employer, interview time, and location of on-campus interviews that you may have set up at the Career Fair.
- Connect with and thank the recruiters via email or LinkedIn.
- If you were interviewed, send a thank you note. Visit the Rawls CMC for free Rawls College of Business thank you notes.

COMMON MYTHS AND MISCONCEPTIONS ABOUT CAREER FAIRS CAREER FAIRS ARE ONLY FOR GRADUATING SENIORS TO FIND JOBS – MYTH!

It is NEVER too early to attend a career fair. We encourage students of all class standings and alumni, as well as all business majors, to attend. Seniors and alumni can seek out full-time jobs, and juniors typically look for internships. Freshmen and sophomores can also go to get comfortable with the environment, gain feedback on their resumes, learn more about which in-demand internships and jobs they are interested in for the future, and get connected.

I SHOULD ONLY GO TO A CAREER FAIR WHEN I NEED AN INTERNSHIP/JOB VERY SOON - MYTH!

While some employers will be looking to fill positions ASAP, a good majority of employers may be recruiting for positions eight months or more in advance. Examples: Spring 2020 graduates should attend the Fall 2019 Career Fair to find full time positions beginning in May/June 2020. Students interested in Summer 2020 internships should attend the Fall 2019 Career Fair to be considered for internships beginning in May/June 2020.

WHEN I GO TO A CAREER FAIR, I NEED TO VISIT EVERY EMPLOYER - MYTH!

Take a look at the employer list for the Career Fair ahead of time and create your own targeted list of 10 to 20 employers. Make sure to bring plenty of resumes to provide to each employer, and make it a priority to visit them. Don't overwhelm yourself by feeling you need to visit each employer! At a career fair, it should be a matter of quality not quantity.

PRE Professional document approval process

VMOCK

To ensure the quickest resume feedback possible, the Rawls CMC has purchased the VMock Smart Resume platform. VMock is an online system that allows you to upload your resume at any time to receive instant 24/7 feedback!

resume tips + formatting

A resume is a summary of your qualifications and a display of your skill sets relevant to the job description. The goal is to present a clear, concise, easy-to-read document that makes the reviewer want to interview you.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

You must set yourself apart from your peers. When writing your resume, what makes you unique or more qualified than those you are applying against?

Proofread! Avoid "resume killers" such as spelling, capitalization, grammar, and punctuation errors.

Be truthful. The last thing you want is to oversell your ability to perform and lose the job in the interview. Avoid words like expert, specialist, guru, etc.

Avoid personal/discriminatory information such as SSN, picture, or references to age, religion, ethnicity.

Put references on a completely different page. Do not include them on your resume.

Avoid listing responsibilities or duties and focus instead on accomplishments. Your resume shouldn't read like a job description.

Use strong action verbs that align your skill set to the company's needs. Be diverse and use a thesaurus.

RESUME TIPS

- The resume's only job is to get you the interview.
- Write your own resume copying a friend or a pre-formatted resume comes across as lazy.
- You have approximately 6 seconds to make a first impression with your resume.
- A single error might disqualify you. Proofread!

Customize your resume by using keywords from the job posting as often as possible in your resume. Most corporations use a computerized ATS system that scans submitted resumes for keywords that indicate that an applicant fits a particular job.

FORMAT

- 1 page for undergraduate students and recent graduates with less than 5 years of experience.
- Use bullet points instead of paragraphs.
- Do not use less than .5" margins or 11 point font. This is easiest on the reader's eyes.
- Be consistent with your formatting: bolds, italics, spacing alignment, capitalization, dashes, dates, etc.
   Make it look the same top to bottom.
- Use reverse chronological order, meaning your most recent experiences are listed first.

USING THE STAR METHOD ON YOUR RESUME:

Task: "Increased client base and advised clients on mergers."

SAME JOB TASK USING THE STAR METHOD: "Advised clients on mergers and acquisitions of business segments ranging from $500,000 to $1.2M, resulting in 95% customer satisfaction and 9 new client referrals."

Task: "Developed a marketing plan that redesigned a corporate concept and added 5 new stores nationwide."

SAME JOB TASK USING THE STAR METHOD: "Developed a corporate strategy, reformulated the business concept of a one dimensional specialist to a provider of full customer service, growing from three to eight stores in 18 months."

Never start a cover letter with "To Whom it May 3 Concern". When writing a cover letter, don't be afraid to contact the company to see if you can find out who is receiving/reviewing the applications. If you can't find a name, it's best to use "Dear Hiring Manager" instead.

Dear Ms. Employer:

- I am writing to express my interest in the PDQ position at XYZ Company. After speaking with John Recruiter at the Rawls College of Business Spring 2020 Career Fair, I am very interested in this exciting position. My educational experiences at Texas Tech and proven experience in community outreach make me a strong candidate for this role.
- I recently graduated with a degree in Marketing from the Rawls College of Business at 5 Texas Tech University. As a student, I coordinated and planned the Alpha Beta Omega Red Hot Chili Cook-off that benefited the Make-A-Wish Foundation. Under my leadership, we contributed $5,000 for local families; exceeding the previous year's commitment by 80%. In addition, I worked as a student assistant for the Rawls College of Business. In this role, I worked with a team of eight as the main support for all administrative responsibilities. I was also in charge of writing copy for various marketing pieces.
- My background in community outreach and marketing would allow me to contribute 6 significantly to the marketing department of XYZ Company. My career goal is to ultimately work in development or fundraising and community relations and this internship would be beneficial in helping me achieve this goal.

I know my skills and education will make me a valuable member of your team and I would appreciate the opportunity to discuss my qualifications further in an interview. If you have any questions, please feel free to reach me at (282) 595-4837 or steve.rogers@ttu.edu. Thank you for your time and consideration.

ARE YOUR SOCIAL MEDIA PROFILES KEEPING YOU FROM BEING HIRED?

Before applying for a job, you are taught to conduct thorough research of the company to guarantee an understanding of their mission, values, culture, and leadership. However, have you ever considered the possibility that potential employers may be conducting just as much research about YOU?

WHETHER IT'S FACEBOOK, TWITTER, INSTAGRAM, OR LINKEDIN, MAKE SURE TO AVOID THESE SOCIAL MEDIA MISTAKES:

Networ

Not having an online presence. It may be easy to assume that not having a social media profile is the best answer to guarantee you do not fall victim to posting inappropriate content, but not having an online presence keeps employers from being able to learn more about you. Because social media has become such an integral part of our society, employers like to see that you have personal experience navigating the sites and generating/posting content.

Avoid inappropriate content.

- Profanity. Just don't use it. It's unprofessional and, we promise, it isn't necessary.
- Pictures. Whether they are from 10 years ago or two days ago, avoid any photographs displaying alcohol, drugs, nudity, or weapons.
- Negative/Offensive. Avoid posting anything negative or offensive about organizations, professionals, or employers. No matter how mad you are at your boss, complaining about the company you work for is a red flag to recruiters. Also, avoid posting threats to others and avoid sharing inappropriate content such as crude jokes. You may think they are funny, but a recruiter might not.
- Controversial Topics. Be aware that others may not share your views and this can create a negative impression of you.

Grammar/Spelling. Use of widely accepted social media acronyms isn't prohibited, but if you can't type a clear sentence, without error, recruiters will assume you are unable to communicate effectively.

A basic rule of thumb: "Don't post anything you wouldn't want your grandma to see."

online branding

LINKEDIN

Your LinkedIn profile is one of the most valuable pieces of online real estate you have when it comes to creating a professional brand with social media! As you seek an internship or job, you will be able to research industry-related people and employers who can help you develop and build your connections. Use LinkedIn to research, discover, and connect by creating a stellar profile, like this one....

FACEBOOK, TWITTER, INSTAGRAM, YOUTUBE

These popular social media sites are often used by employers to learn more about you as a candidate. Make sure your profiles are professional, appropriate, and reflect your brand in a positive manner. Ensure your privacy settings are up-to-date and always be mindful of what information you share, like/retweet, and are tagged in. If in doubt, utilize the "View As" option to see how your profile would appear to future employers.

WWW.

A personal website can be a great resource to share your professional profile with employers, thus helping you stand out among other applicants. You can share your professional social media links, work/writing samples, and references to help you better connect with employers. Some free options include Wordpress, Weebly, Squarespace, and Wix. You can share the link to your website on business cards and in your email signature.

in LINKEDIN PROFILE CHECKLIST

- Appear in Search Results: Be sure to include industryrelated key words in your summary and experiences, to increase the chance that your profile is listed in the search results.
- 2 Stand Out with a Background Photo: Including a relevant and high quality background photo can make your profile more memorable to recruiters. For best results, be sure your image is at least 1000 px X 425 px and is uploaded as a PNG, JPEG, or GIF.
- 3 Use a Professional Headshot: Make a great first impression by ensuring your profile picture is professional. Best practices include wearing a suit, taking the photo in front of a simple background, and focusing on the shoulders, neck, and head. The photo should be 400 px X 400 px and uploaded as a PNG, JPEG, or GIF. Don't forget, the CMC offers free headshots several times throughout the semester! Check your Handshake account to see when these are scheduled.
- 4 Use Your Full Name: It's best to use the same name that appears on your resume. Avoid using nicknames, so you can ensure it's easy for recruiters to find you.
- 5 Make the Most of the Headline: Don't use the default headline! A stellar headline captures recruiters' attention by including who you are, what you currently do, and what you hope to do.
- 6 Identify your Industry: Ensure your profile is viewable to the correct people, by including the industry you hope to work in.
- 7 Share your Location: Be sure to include your location, so your profile will be viewable to recruiters who look for potential candidates by filtering by location.
- 8 Identify Contact Information: Be sure to include how you would like recruiters to contact you. You can include a professional email address and/or phone number.
- 9 Personalize your URL: A personal URL will make it easier for others to find you. Common practice is to end the URL with your first and last name.

GETHRED types of interviews

BEHAVIORAL INTERVIEW

"Tell me about a time when..." or "Give me an example of a situation where..." are prompts that seek your best examples of how you would satisfy the requirements of the job. The purpose of a behavioral style interview question is to see how you behaved in the past in a certain situation as a predictor of future behavior. These behavioral interview questions are frequently asked in interviews of all types.

PHONE

This is typically the method used for the first round of interviews and will be your first "live" interaction with the employer. Make sure your cell phone has a strong signal and connection or use a landline phone. Be sure to have a professional sounding voicemail set up so that if you happen to miss the call, the employer can leave a message. Dress professionally to help yourself get into a professional mindset and be free of distractions and background noise.

ASSESSMENT

This method will provide you the opportunity to prove your knowledge, skills, and abilities pertaining to the job. You may be required to do one or several activities in front of the interviewers and key stakeholders. The activities may involve a presentation or role-playing, for instance, and last from an hour to several days. You may have limited knowledge on what to expect in these cases. Do research with others who have interviewed with the same company to see what information you can gain to help you prepare.

VIRTUAL/VIDEO

Software such as Zoom, Skype, HireVue Yello, and Montage (among others) are more and more commonly used to connect you, as a potential candidate, with the hiring committee in a convenient, cost-effective way. Prepare and test your video/audio equipment by practicing with a friend or having a Zoom or Skype mock interview through the Career Management Center. Your video screen name should be professional and appropriate. For the interview, make sure that your backdrop is plain and lighting is appropriate. Dress professionally and look at the camera (not your screen) to maintain eye contact.

GROUP

You, along with multiple candidates, will be assessed in the same room for the same job. Candidates may be asked to all respond to the same question or different sets of questions in either a roundtable or random format. Group interviews often involve interaction between candidates, which will allow the interviewers to see if you stand out and how well you interact with others. The interviewers will also be able to assess your ability to deal with pressure, take on leadership roles, work well with a team, and remember details such as the other candidates' names and responses.

PANEL

Congratulations! You are most likely one of the finalists when invited for a panel interview, as you will meet multiple key stakeholders. Appearance, eye contact with each person on the panel, posture, and overall demeanor are as important as your responses to their questions.

interview questions

follow-up

If you are looking for ways to stand out from other applicants, be the one who sends a thank you note or email 1-2 business days after the interview. A thank you note is a chance to stand out, demonstrate follow-up skills, add to interview conversations, and reiterate your top qualifications.

Use the guidelines below for why, when, and how to write a thank you note:

Send a thank you note after a phone interview. You don't have to wait for an in-person interview to write a thank you note. A quick, simple note can go a long way.

Thank you for taking the time to talk with me on the phone today.

Please let me know if I can answer any other questions, and I hope to hear from you again soon.

Thank you note etiquette can be a challenge when you meet with multiple people during an interview. A good rule to follow is to write an individual follow-up note to each person. Before leaving, ask for business cards of each person interviewing you.

Dear Shelly, It was a pleasure to meet you on Tuesday. Your description of the coordinator role and how you facilitate the weekly office communications was very helpful.

Good luck with the event next week, and thanks again!

If you don't have the contact information for each person on the interview panel, it is still important to name each person you met with.

I enjoyed meeting you and the rest of the team yesterday. Please tell Cindy, Sam, and Rebecca thank you for their time and thoughtful questions.

Use the thank you note to expand or reinforce your interview conversations. If you mentioned a project, organization, or article, you can include a link to further information.

We talked about the conference where I learned about the new IT governance strategies, and I wanted to share a link to the presentation I mentioned.

You can also add information that you didn't cover in the interview. You know that feeling when you walk out of an interview and think, "Why didn't I say X? I should have told them about that project!" The thank you note can be your second chance.

It was good to learn more about how you collaborate with your managed service vendors.

I don't think I mentioned that my previous role involved negotiating a new IT services contract.

Finally, if you are working with an HR representative or recruiter who is coordinating the interview process for you, follow up with him/her as well. When you finish a round of interviews, let your recruiter know how it went.

Dear Sam, Thank you for setting up the call with Rebecca today. She and I had a good conversation about the regional office's rapid growth—and it was nice to find a fellow Lubbock native!

Combine the above examples that work for you to form a complete thank you note of three sentences to a couple of paragraphs. Be sure to write your note in your neatest handwriting and add a personal touch from your interview!

5 rules to email

KEEP IT SHORT Your email should be clear and to the point. Shrink sentences and list items to guarantee your message is easy to read.

DESCRIPTIVE SUBJECT LINE The subject line of an email should be straightforward and describe the content of the email.

dress for success

BUSINESS CASUAL VS. PROFESSIONAL

Decoding the dress code for interviews and professional events.

TIPS FOR SUCCESS IN ANY BUSINESS SITUATION

- When in doubt, dress conservatively.
- A suit (suit and tie for males) will suffice in most situations.
- Make sure your outfit is wrinkle-free.
- Stick with solid colors and tighter-woven fabrics or simple patterns.
- Accessories should be kept simple: basic pumps, modest jewelry, light make up, and only light perfume or aftershave.
- Wear a belt and a watch. The belt should match the shoes.
- Be sure your hair (including beard) is neatly trimmed or groomed. Avoid the "messy look."
- Shirts with lettering or graphics should not be worn.
- Check your outfit for missing buttons, thread "x"s on skirts and jackets, lint, or a crooked tie.
- A skirt should be no shorter than the tips of your middle fingers (or just above the knee for good measure).

interview attire

DID YOU KNOW...

Your interview begins the moment you walk through the doors. You will be sized up immediately by all who meet and see you throughout the day. For each person you meet during the process, including the office administrative assistants and the entire interview panel, consider the following tips:

- Always introduce yourself and greet other professionals with a firm handshake, smile, and eye contact.
- Bring with you a contagious excitement, enthusiasm, energy, and passion for your field.
- Be yourself: show you are poised and confident about your skills through your body language, posture, and facial expressions.
- Be knowledgeable about the company's mission, vision, and values and be able to communicate them effectively.

Follow these general rules in regards to interview attire:

- Hair should be clean, well-groomed, and away from the eyes (this includes all facial hair, even in November!).
- Tattoos and/or body piercings should not be visible.
- Strong smells, including mints, perfumes, or aftershaves should be avoided in excess.
- Briefcases or portfolios provide an excellent outlet to store and organize documents.
- Clothing should fit properly. A professional business suit is appropriate in most cases. For men this means a suit with a tie. Be sure your shirt is nicely pressed. Women should also wear a business suit. Avoid low necklines, short skirts, and heels higher than three inches. Trendy clothing generally does not project the most professional image.
- Crisp, clean, and well-pressed is non-negotiable.

For any type of career-related event, fair, informational interview, conference, or job shadow, always dress professionally based on your industry. Be sure to avoid:

- Ripped jeans
- Flip-flops
- T-shirts
- Wrinkled khakis
- Short shorts and dresses

dining etiquette

Whether you are sitting across the table at a job interview, or rubbing elbows with a stranger at a corporate event, your table manners speak volumes about your social skills and confidence level. Here is the least you should know when it comes to sharing a meal:

- At a business meal, men and women are responsible for seating themselves. At a business meal, men and women are gender neutral and each person seats themselves.
- Watch your host. Before jumping into the bread basket or sweetening your iced tea, wait for the host of the table to lead the way. Generally, he or she will pick up the napkin and place it on his or her lap. Incidentally, once you place your napkin on your lap, it won't see the table again until the end of the meal when it is placed back on the table before departing.
- Which is my water glass? An easy way to remember what goes where is B-M-W.

Bread plate is always on the left

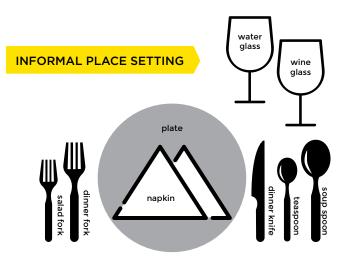

Meal will be in the middle

Water glass will be on the right side of the place setting

- Order smart. Stay away from messy foods like spaghetti, corn on the cob, ribs, pizza, and hard to eat or hold items. Cherry tomatoes will always spray the person sitting next to you – skip it when eating your salad.
- Your cell phone should not be visible anywhere at the table. If you want to blow the job interview, show up holding your cell phone. Your full attention should be on the person sitting across from you, rather than an incoming call or text message. We recommend turning your phone off completely.
- Never leave a spoon in the soup bowl. Between bites, place your spoon on the plate, behind and beneath the soup bowl. Spoon the soup away from your body before bringing the soup to your mouth.

- Cut only one piece of food at a time. Pace yourself and put your utensils down between bites. Use the proper form of "Resting" and "Finished". It doesn't matter if your server doesn't recognize the Rest/Finish signal, you will appear more composed and your plate won't look as if it has been bulldozed with stray cutlery.
- Sneeze and cough into your left shoulder. Never use your napkin as a tissue, and sneezing into the crook of your arm is reserved for school children. Turn your head left and use your left hand to shield your mouth when you cough or sneeze at the table. If you must blow your nose, excuse yourself and take care of the issue away from your table guests.
- Salt and pepper travel together. Bread, salt, pepper, butter and other food items are passed to the right, counterclockwise.

This information is just the very basics and the more knowledge you gain, the more power and control you will show when it comes to looking and feeling your best at the table.

AN OFFER IS A BIG DEAL

Woohoo! It's a great feeling when you receive a job offer! However, do consider that accepting an offer is a BIG commitment. Do not accept an offer until you are sure you are committed to moving forward with that position and company and agree to the specifics of the offer. When you accept an offer, you enter a mutually beneficial business relationship. This is a big decision and should not be taken lightly. There are many things to consider when evaluating a job offer. It's not always just about the paycheck.

Before accepting, it is advised that you:

- Take time to decide and agree on a reasonable "decision date" with the employer; discuss how to follow-up (ex: in-person, phone, email, letter)
- Ask questions! Don't accept an offer with lingering questions or uncertainties about the position
- Request to meet again, see the office/environment or talk with potential colleagues if you feel you didn't get the best sense of the position or employer during the interview

If you are still in the middle of pursuing other job prospects and opportunities, then likely you are not ready to accept an offer. Once you formally accept an offer from a company you must take yourself "off the market".

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

The way you conduct yourself during this process is a reflection on several others, including the Rawls College of Business, Texas Tech University, and your network. Most importantly, your conduct will reflect positively or negatively on YOU and may jeopardize your consideration for future employment. Always protect your reputation during the job search. In addition, thank and keep your references and others who have helped you in your job search updated on your status with interviews and offers.

RESPONDING & PROCESSING THE OFFER

First and foremost, thank the employer for the offer, no matter if you like it or not. Acknowledge that your goal is to accept an offer that is fair for both you and them. Remember to agree on a decision date with the employer and take time to evaluate the components of the offer. Think beyond the salary offer and look into further details such as benefits (ex: insurance, retirement plan), professional development, career advancement opportunities, flexible work schedule, work environment/culture and relocation assistance.

DECLINING AN OFFER

If you decide to turn down an offer, do so in a professional and respectful manner. Make the employer aware of your decision through a conversation either via phone or in person, if possible. If they mention that notifying them of your decision by email or letter is acceptable, then you may do so.

- Thank them for the offer and experience of going through their selection process
- You are not obligated to explain the reason behind your decision, but if you do, be considerate; view this as an opportunity to provide the employer honest, tasteful feedback regarding your decision. Be careful with your word choices. Consult a member of the Career Management Center for help with this type of communication.

DECIDING BETWEEN MULTIPLE OFFERS

Job searching is a process and you may receive multiple offers around the same period of time. Take the time to think about if you're really ready to commit and consider declining an offer if you're not ready to make a decision within a reasonable amount of time for both you and the employer. If you feel unreasonably pressed by an employer to make a decision, you may find it necessary to decline the offer.

Consider the interests and ethical rights of the employer. They have committed to you by providing an offer. If you were to accept the offer and later withdraw, they would likely need to reopen the search process for the position you had promised to fulfill. It is considered distasteful to go back on a professional commitment such as this. Also remember that doing so risks your reputation with that employer, individuals on the hiring committee, your references, and the entire Rawls College of Business community.

Schedule an appointment with the CMC for professional advice regarding your offer, especially if you are having difficulty deciding or knowing how to best communicate with an employer. Appointments can be made through Handshake.

budgeting

In no particular order, here is a list of helpful money moves as you enter the real world.

USING CREDIT/BORROWING TO BUY THINGS THAT LOSE VALUE

Cars, furniture, appliances, and tech gadgets – the value of these things is headed in one direction, and that's down. Paying interest means getting hit twice, first by the value loss, then by finance charges.

There are purchases where borrowing is justified: a home, a business, or an education can be among them, since they at least have a chance of ultimately increasing your net worth. For pretty much everything else, the fewer borrowed bucks, the better.

INSURANCE, THE NECESSARY EVIL

You have to carry it and it costs a ton, but very few people take the time to understand the insurance they're paying for, or how they might pay less. Here are five tips on how to manage your insurance.

- Understand your options, whether it is car, home, renters, life, or health insurance
- Review your coverage once a year
- Shop around
- Raise your deductibles to lower your premium
- Don't pay for protection you don't need

BUDGET. IT IS THAT SIMPLE!

Your goal is your destination – where you want to be. The shortest path to get there is allocating your resources with a spending plan and tracking your progress. Not having financial goals and tracking your expenses is like driving around blindfolded, expecting to somehow arrive where you want to go.

Setting budgets and tracking expenses used to be a time-consuming pain because you had to do it by hand. Now it's as easy as going to a free site like Mint.com or Power Wallet. For more in-depth budgeting tools, there is YNAB. Don't forget all of the options on your iPhone and Android.

RED TO BLACK

Red to Black offers peer-to-peer financial coaching to Texas Tech students. They provide individual coaching sessions and group presentations on topics such as creating spending plans, the importance of starting to save early, maximizing financial aid (including student loans), how to choose employee benefits and establishing and wisely using credit. Their purpose is to empower students so that they can achieve their financial goals. They believe that no one understands the needs and concerns of students better than fellow students.

BUILD YOUR SAVINGS

According to a study by Forbes, just 37% of Americans have enough savings to pay for a $500 or $1,000 emergency. Studies show that 56.3% of people have less than $1,000 in their checking and savings accounts combined.

Start saving now. Calculate how much you'd need to live without income for six months, then make that sum your goal. Set up an automatic transfer into your savings account so you pay yourself first.

FREE MONEY!

Not participating in your employer's retirement plan at work, especially if they offer matching money, is really dumb. Sock all the money you can into a taxadvantaged retirement plan. Take advantage of employer matching contributions and tax breaks.

ACTIVELY MANAGE YOUR CREDIT

You've heard it all before: A low credit score means higher borrowing costs, higher insurance premiums and more difficulty renting an apartment. A bad credit history could even affect your ability to land some types of jobs.

If that hasn't hit home yet, maybe this will: Say we both take out a 30 year mortgage. Because my credit scores are low, I'm saddled with a higher interest rate and higher payments. My monthly payment is $1,200 a month. Because your credit is stellar, you're offered a lower rate, which means lower monthly payments: $1,000 a month.

Now, suppose you invest your extra $200 every month during that 30 years and manage to earn an average of 8 percent annually. After 30 years, we'll both have paid-for houses, but you'll have $300,000 I don't.

That's a nice chunk of change simply for showing up with a good credit score.

networking

CREATE A "SAY YES" POLICY

Even if seeing a play or going to a concert isn't your idea of fun, just the act of exploring new bus routes and streets and venues will give you more confidence and something new to talk about. You may also meet someone who ends up being a great friend, or a great career resource.

IGNORE YOUR SENSIBLE VOICE

It sounds crazy, but you never know what will happen—or who you'll meet—when you step outside of your comfort zone.

NETWORKING TIPS

ACTIVELY PARTICIPATE IN PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

A rare chance to create valuable business connections and make friends at the same time. Most national organizations have several chapters in each state, so take a look at your group's website to see where the next meeting takes place. Try branching out to new professional organizations, too, especially if you're moving to a larger city.

YOU ARE NOT ALONE

The best part about graduating and moving to a new place is the personal growth you will go through. It can be hard at times, but find peace knowing there are thousands of others going through the same thing. When you meet, share a dinner or drinks.

VOLUNTEER

You will surround yourself with likeminded people, new connections, and potential job opportunities, too.

LEADING UP TO AUGUST

Study For and Take Standardized Tests

August is the ideal time to take the standardized tests necessary for admissions because you'll have time to retake them in the fall if you're unhappy with your scores.

Different techniques work for different people, so think about what kind of study experience you want.

- Test prep organizations frequently offer classes for the LSAT, MCAT, GMAT, and GRE.
- Study on your own, borrow review books from a friend or the library. Note, this is often the most cost effective option.
- Use a private tutor, who can be immensely helpful.

SEPTEMBER

Research Financial Aid

Start by creating a budget, outlining how much money you'll need for tuition, housing, books, fees, and living expenses. You can typically find sample budget breakdowns on program websites, but don't forget your own needs and wants.

Then, make a list of possible funding sources. Most degrees will cost you out-of-pocket, but some programs offer fellowships and scholarships or work-study opportunities. Learn what federal student aid is available to you, and also research field-specific grants or alumni scholarship opportunities you can apply for.

Select Schools to Apply To

Extensive online research about prospective programs will allow you to narrow down the programs you'd like to apply to —scoping out things like curriculum, reputation, cost, faculty expertise, support services, and alumni networks. Also comb through their applications and necessary requirements.

Write Essays

Each school you apply to will likely require one or more essays. You will find it helpful to prepare a personal statement ahead of time, which you can customize for each school. Then, make a list of the other essay questions you'll need to answer for each program, and get started writing.

Utilize the CMC and the Snyder Communication Center as a second (or third) set of eyes.

Request Letters of Recommendation

Almost every program has a form you will need to provide with or in lieu of your letter of recommendations. It is worthwhile to brainstorm which faculty members, employers, or other people can speak to your academic or business experience. You'll want to discuss your grad school plans and goals with them before they start writing.

Depending on how well you know your recommender, he or she may ask you to write a "sample letter." Many faculty members are pressed for time and find it easier to adjust letters than to write them. If so, don't panic! Take advantage of a great opportunity to talk yourself up.

Also be prepared to provide each recommender with a copy of your transcript, your statement of purpose, and your resume or CV.

NOVEMBER

Order Transcripts

Order official transcripts to be sent to each program you are applying to. If you're still in college, you can request that your transcripts be held until fall semester grades are posted, particularly if you think they'll give your application a boost.

Begin Application Documents

Start filling out online application documents and any supplemental materials required. You won't need to hit send for another month, but it's good to get a head start.

Get Organized

Make a timeline of due dates and make sure that your earliest applications are ready. Create a folder (electronic or paper) for each school and make sure that you keep necessary materials for each program separate. You definitely don't want to send your Texas Tech statement to Texas!

DECEMBER & JANUARY

Send In Applications

Let someone else proofread all of your admissions materials and make sure that you've filled out every last field on your application form. Then, send them off—fingers crossed!

Confirm Receipt

Make sure that you receive a confirmation statement from each school within two weeks. Contact the admissions office if you do not receive an email, postcard, or letter assuring you they have your application.

Then, let the waiting game begin.

Prepare for Admissions Interviews

If this is a part of their admissions process, schools typically begin contacting students for interviews about 2-4 weeks after application deadlines. At this point, you'll want to rank the schools that have invited you and accept invitations in order of priority.

For each program you'll be interviewing with, set up a new folder with everything you'll need for your visit. Make a list of questions you have for faculty and staff, and prepare answers to questions you think they may ask. Treat this like a business interview.

Secure Financial Aid or Develop a Funding Plan Determine if you will receive any fellowship or scholarship money and from which departments. If you aren't offered funding through the school, you'll need to start on your Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) application by assembling required documents, such as bank statements, W-2s, investment records, and federal income tax returns. If you are married, in a domestic partnership, or a dependent you will also need your spouse's, partner's, or parents' tax return.

MARCH & APRIL

Visit Campuses

For each campus you visit, create an itinerary with the program coordinator. Meet with faculty, especially potential advisors or mentors, and ask thoughtful questions. Try to sit in on a few classes and meet with current students, tooanything that might help you picture yourself as a student there. Also plan to spend time checking out the surrounding city—your grad school experience goes far beyond the classroom, so make time to think about if you could live in this location!

Make a Decision

Everyone has a different approach for making important decisions, so stick to your method! Perhaps you make pro/ con lists or spreadsheets to calculate the weight of different factors, or, hey, even flip a coin. Go through your process, rank your schools, and make your decision

CANCELLATION POLICY

Missing an interview, mock interview, recruiting event, or having a late cancellation to any of these, are considered serious offenses. We hold the time of our employer partners in the highest regard. Additionally, significant planning time goes into oncampus recruiting as well as organizing RSVP events. Cancelling or no-showing these opportunities wastes employer and staff time and takes a space away from another student who could have benefited from that employer interaction.

TWO BUSINESS DAY NOTICE IS REQUIRED FOR ANY CANCELLATION

Ex: If you have an interview scheduled at 10am on Monday, cancellation by 10am the previous Thursday is required.

Ex: If you RSVP'd that you will attend an event at 6pm on Monday, cancellation by 6pm the previous Thursday is required.

The following policy applies regardless of the reason for cancelling. We understand that unexpected events occur, but once the final schedules are completed two business days prior to the interview, all other students have already been notified that they were declined and there is no way to go back and fill the vacant interview slot. It is proper business etiquette to apologize for cancelling any appointment. This policy also applies to RSVP events hosted by an employer or the CMC.

First Offense: Temporary loss of all access to Handshake.

Access will be restored upon receipt of apology letters written to the recruiter and to the Dean of the Rawls College of Business. The letter must be professionally formatted, adequately explain the circumstances, and apologize for the no-show or late cancellation. Letters should be hand-delivered or emailed to the Career Management Center.

• Second Offense: Permanent loss of access to Handshake and loss of access to all CMC sponsored recruiting events. The CMC employer relations staff spends significant time and energy (over many years) building quality employer relationships for the benefit of Rawls College of Business students. It is imperative for the success of future recruiting efforts that CMC staff protect these relationships. Any student not fulfilling obligations to employers will be subject to this policy.

Should an emergency arise, or if a student knows ahead of time that they will be late for an interview or recruiting event, they must notify a CMC staff member and/or the employer as soon as possible.

- No CMC activity provides an automatic excuse for missing class. It is the responsibility of the student to communicate with their professor about class absences, moving test dates, etc.
- The CMC can provide proof of appointment before the function and proof of attendance after, upon request.
- The CMC is NOT responsible for granting requests to miss class or other academic functions for any reason. The decision to grant excused absences from any academic responsibility lies solely in the hands of the instructor or professor.

Arrive 10-15 minutes early for all interviews, mock interviews and recruiting events. This leaves you enough time to check in, store your belongings and get settled before your scheduled interview time.

If a student is offered an interview for a position to which he/she has applied, it is expected that the interview should be accepted.

- There is no penalty for declining invitations to interviews for legitimate reasons.
  - Already accepted position with another company
  - Scheduling conflict (discuss with the employer prior to declining)
  - Students cannot transfer their spot to another student.
